Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	In line with Gov.UK publication CC30 "finding new Trustees"

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

No Trustees meetings were held in the year due to no further funding being available for grants.

There are no ongoing running costs so this does not affect the viability of the charity.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are:

- The relief of those in need by reason of youth, age, ill health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage
- The provision of education and skills training for employment
- The promotion of good health for those living in or refugees of Afghanistan through the provision of grants to charities and not for profit organisations supporting these outcomes.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Due to no further funds being made available, the charity has not had any activities this year.

Outgoings are solely running costs including accountants fees for 2022.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity retains sufficient reserves to ensure it is able to operate effectively for the foreseeable future.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity is likely to remain quiet this coming year until further funds are made available by SJ Agha for charitable activities.
