Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Continue to increase the work of the Kowethas - done mostly by an increasing number of volunteers. The number of members of the Kowethas has remained stable over the past year. 2. Maintaining and developing our website. 3. Publication of our monthly magazine 'An Gannas' in the Cornish language with an Cornish language insert for beginners. 4. Publication of books for adults and children. Sales of books have increased during the year. 5. Organisation of Sadorn Kernewek (Cornish Saturday), an online Cornish language event including activities such as conversation practice, talks and music in March 2024. 6. Organisation of the Pennseythen Gernewek (Cornish language weekend), an in-person event in April 2024 at Truro. This gave learners and more experienced speakers of the language the opportunity to meet together to use it and to learn more about

		it in a wide range of settings. 7. Organisation of stalls at events around Cornwall. This gave the opportunity to reach people who may not have had any contact with the language previously. 8. Kowethas members contributed to the annual Speak Cornish Week held in June 2024. 9. Operation of 'Kowsva', a combination of a shop, office and storage facility at Heartlands, Redruth to provide a base for our activities. Volunteers were present at Kowsva most days to run the shop and promote the Cornish language to visitors. It must be noted that Kowsva was closed down at the end of September 2024 due to increased costs. We now have a separate, less expensive storage facility and 'pop-up' stalls are being organised at events throughout Cornwall.

Kowethas an Yeth Kernewek CIO accounts for year ended

31 October 2024

I have examined the information, invoices, bank statements, receipts and payment account, and balance sheets supplied relating to the financial activities of Kowethas an Yeth Kernewek for year ended 31 October 2024.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

I judge the attached Receipts and Payments Account, and the Balance Sheet to be a fair and accurate summary of those financial activities.
