Objectives and Activities:

To advance the Christian beliefs of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, for the benefit of the public, by means of broadcasting inspiring sermons, Bible teachings, personal testimonies, programmes on the family, health and wellbeing, playing Gospel music, and providing a platform for young creative adults to express their faith.

A statement of the charity's aims and purposes.

Our aim is to prepare you for the return of Jesus Christ. In addition, we address practical issues and also offer possible solutions through our 24/7 online broadcasts and mobile Apps. Lastly, we are a registered charity in England and Wales, and we follow these three guiding principles:

Health Reform: Promoting holistic health.

Sharing the Love of God: Highlighting God's plan for our salvation through sermons, Bible studies, testimonials, and gospel music.

Community Development: Encouraging social cohesion and community projects.

Main activities undertaken to achieve these aims.

Production of 'live' and recorded radio programmes that allow the listeners to give feedback on the content.

Key projects, programmes, or services delivered during the year.

Programmes on family life; testimonies of individuals delivered by faith in God.; highlighting the achievements of individuals in the Windrush Nation and commissioning an anthem for the ceremonies affecting the Windrush Nation.

Specific accomplishments during the reporting period, such as audience growth, events, or campaigns.
