

PERSONAL CONSTRUCT EDUCATION TRUST

Annual Report 1st January 2024 to 31st December 2024

The charity continued to set in place the administrative structures for carrying out its purposes in supporting the development of courses in personal construct psychology and making grants to individuals studying personal construct psychology. A small number of grants have been made to support students attending the Personal Construct Psychology and Counselling course at the University of Padua.

At the end of the this year, the current chair Richard Casebow stepped down from this position and he will leave the board entirely in April 2025. The charity is actively looking for a new chair, as well as board members.
