Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To provide grants and donations for such charitable purposes, for the public benefit, that promote the protection of natural resources; the protection of indigenous lands and the protection of biodiversity, endangered habitats and animal species. Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the CIO for the purposes which are not charitable in accordance with [section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005] and [section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008]
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The Red-Inc foundation is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation that supports rainforest protection, tree planting and conservation initiatives across the globe. Through our strong network of charity partners, we supply grants to conservation and reforestation programmes that fully support biodiversity and create significant environmental, economic and social benefit. In line with our PlantOneProtectOne initiative Red-Inc Ltd make donations to the Red-Inc Foundation to protect rainforests and plant trees for every box of paper sold. All income is generated through the business - Red-Incorporated Ltd, a UK company (registration number 06689322). All donations will be received through bank transfer. As this is solely a grant making charity we will have no expenses..

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Red-Inc Foundation can confirm that our charity trustees 'have regard' to the commission's public benefit guidance 'when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance is relevant'. All trustees are aware of the guidance, they take it into account when making a decision to which the guidance is relevant and if they have decided to depart from the guidance, they understand they must have good reasons for doing so.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the 2024/25 financial year, the Red-Inc Foundation donated a total of £5,174.49 to trusted conservation and reforestation partners including Rainforest Trust UK, Eden Reforestation Projects and Trees for Cities. These donations supported a range of biodiversity, climate and community outcomes. Collectively, the Foundation's funding helped to protect 2,169 acres of critical habitat, safeguarding an estimated 208,224 trees and preserving vital ecosystems that contribute to long-term carbon storage, species protection and climate resilience. In addition, the Foundation supported the planting of 3,470 trees, primarily through mangrove and urban tree planting programmes. Mangrove restoration delivers particularly high climate value due to its exceptional carbon sequestration capacity, while also

		strengthening coastal protection, supporting fisheries and improving local livelihoods. The programmes funded during the year also contributed to the creation of 35 paid workdays, providing fair employment opportunities within local communities involved in planting, nurturing and protecting trees. Through these partnerships, the Red-Inc Foundation continues to deliver measurable environmental and social impact aligned with its charitable objectives of protecting natural resources, biodiversity and vulnerable ecosystems.
