Section B Structure, governance, and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. registered constitution)	Constitution adopted 13 th of August 2021
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	The current trustees are responsible for the recruitment of new trustees, with a focus on incorporating the insights and recommendations of religious scholars throughout the process. In identifying suitable candidates, we prioritize individuals who actively participate in the charity's events and functions and demonstrate a willingness to contribute to our broader community initiatives. Potential trustees are invited to attend trustee meetings as observers, where they are provided with detailed information about the charity's mission, goals, and activities. This period of observation allows both the candidate and the existing trustees to evaluate suitability. If the existing trustees unanimously agree, the candidate is formally proposed for appointment at the next trustees' meeting. This structured approach ensures a thorough assessment of the individual's eligibility, personal competence, and relevant skills or specialist knowledge, thereby strengthening the charity's governance.

This year, public donations continued to be the primary source of income for the charity. We are deeply grateful for the generous support from our donors, which has allowed us to deliver essential assistance to those in need across Limbe, Blantyre District, Malawi and Agadir, Morocco.

We are proud to report that 100% of all donations received were directly allocated towards charitable activities, including the distribution of food, clothing, shelter, and other necessities. The majority of the Gift Aid claimed on donations was also directed towards our charitable programs, with only a minimal portion used for administrative expenses. This efficient use of funds is a testament to our commitment to maximizing the impact of every contribution.

The charity operates without any paid employees, ensuring that all funds are focused on providing direct support to beneficiaries. Our lean operational model allows us to channel the maximum amount of resources into our mission of alleviating poverty and providing relief to vulnerable communities.
