Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	Religious organisation.

Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The organisation's main activities is provided to edify and an improving effect upon the members of the community who attend. The services allow the members of the public to be spiritually enlightened and emotionally refreshed. This can be seen through: Attendants receive the encouragement of harmony. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendants benefit from mutual instruction, encouragement and correction. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendants gain opportunities for joy, mutual comfort, unity, encouragement and peace. • Attendants receive God-given opportunities to develop patience. • Attendants become aware of God-given opportunities to grow in kindness and forgiving others. • Attendants receive mutual encouragement and growth that comes from corporate worship before God The success of the church's activities is evaluated by regular meetings of the leadership of the Church ,having discussions on how to constantly improve the church activities to benefit all beneficiaries. Beneficiaries are also encouraged through their testimonies. For example due to the current pandemic we had to adjust the way services and support are been delivered by doing all services online. We also had to respond to our beneficiaries need by looking for ways to support them in terms of extra encouragements and emotional support. Safeguarding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The organisation has a safeguarding policy in place which covers the duty on trustees for the protection of beneficiaries, staff, volunteers and others coming into contact with the organisation. • They will ensure that all trustees, pastors, volunteers and beneficiaries will be aware of our safeguarding protection policy. They have put in place appropriate policies and procedures, which enable us, check that people are suitable for the roles and responsibility given. All trustees, pastors and volunteers will undergo a safeguarding training which will be renewed annually. • The organisation also have a clear system for referring or reporting to relevant organisations as soon as we suspect or identify concerns.

Achievements and Performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Throughout the year, our church has made significant strides in fulfilling its mission of worship, spiritual growth, and community support. Key accomplishments include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Vibrant Worship and Fellowship: Regular Sunday services provided an inclusive environment for worship, prayer, and community connection. • Bible Training and Spiritual Development: Programs such as Bible study groups, seminars, and discipleship training deepened participants' faith. • Family and Marriage Support: Initiatives like pre-marital counselling and marriage workshops helped strengthen families and relationships. • Parenthood Assistance: Parenting classes and counselling provided faith-based guidance for parents. • Children's Musical Development: A children's music program fostered musical talents and enriched worship. • Biblical Teachings: Consistent Christian teachings empowered members to live out their faith. These efforts reflect the church's dedication to spiritual growth and community well-being.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	Although financial constraints required the church to adjust and prioritise activities, the objectives were largely met. The church adapted by focusing on its most impactful programs, ensuring that the community's spiritual needs were addressed, even during challenging times.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	The church experienced a decrease in donations during the year, primarily due to several members facing job insecurities and financial setbacks. While this affected the overall income, the church adapted by prioritising essential activities and carefully managing resources. Despite the reduction in donations, the church continued to fulfil its mission through prudent financial stewardship and the unwavering support of its congregation. The trustees are committed to addressing this challenge by exploring additional fundraising opportunities and supporting the congregation during these difficult times.

Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	The trustees focused on protecting capital rather than seeking high returns, aiming to preserve resources for future use.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of the financial period, the charity maintained a financially stable position, ensuring that all income received was applied solely towards advancing its charitable objectives, in line with Clause 5 of the constitution. The trustees confirm that no income or property of the CIO was distributed to members or used for private benefit, except where expressly permitted by the governing document (e.g., reimbursement of reasonable expenses). The charity has complied with its obligations to maintain proper accounting records and submit annual accounts and reports to the Charity Commission within the required timeframes, as outlined in Clause 25. The trustees continue to review income and expenditure regularly to ensure ongoing financial sustainability and effective stewardship of funds.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity's policy is to maintain a level of reserves sufficient to ensure that it can continue to meet its ongoing obligations and deliver its charitable activities in the event of unforeseen financial difficulties or delays in income. Reserves are held to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide financial stability and ensure operational continuity • Enable the charity to respond to unexpected costs or shortfalls in income • Support planned future growth and development of the charity's objectives The trustees regularly review the level of reserves in line with the charity's risk profile, expected income, and planned expenditure, and adjust the reserves policy as needed to ensure it remains appropriate and prudent.

Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	At the end of the reporting period, the charity held no financial reserves. The trustees acknowledge the importance of building an appropriate level of reserves to support the sustainability of the charity and are committed to developing a reserves policy and financial plan to build reserves in future periods, as resources allow.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	The charity held zero reserves at the end of the financial period due to limited income and resources during its initial stages of operation. All funds received were used directly to support the charity's objectives and day-to-day activities. The trustees considered it appropriate to prioritise the delivery of core charitable services during this period, while continuing to work towards generating sufficient income in future years to establish and maintain a prudent level of reserves.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	At the end of the reporting period, no funds were materially in deficit. The charity operated within its available income and did not commit to expenditure beyond its financial capacity.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	The trustees have assessed the charity's financial position and believe there are currently no material uncertainties that cast significant doubt on the charity's ability to continue as a going concern. While the charity held no reserves at the end of the period, the trustees are actively working to strengthen income streams, manage costs effectively, and develop a sustainable financial plan. The trustees remain confident that the charity will continue to operate and fulfil its objectives for the foreseeable future.
