Policy on grant making.	Para 1.38	The principles which underpin the trustees' governance of the Newfoundland Canine Trust grant making process take into account the scale and range of its grants and strike a balance between proper oversight of decision-making and responsive customer service for both applicants and donors. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Board of trustees has ultimate collective responsibility for all grant-making decisions in line with the Newfoundland Canine Trust charitable purposes and any restrictions agreed with donors and funding partners. • Trustees may assign certain decision-making responsibilities to its sub-committees, within its scheme of delegation. Such delegated decisions are subject to scrutiny and review from time to time. • Trustees reserve the right to apply conditions to any grant. • Trustees also reserve the right not to approve any recommendation or nomination if they (or those acting with their delegated authority) determine that the resulting grant would not be charitable or would conflict with the Newfoundland Canine Trust stated policies or damage its reputation.
Policy on social investment including program related investment.	Para 1.38	The charity understands it is important to remember that whether or not a social investment is being made is determined by the motivation of the charity – if the reasons for applying funds in a particular way include both directly furthering the charity's purposes and making a financial return then the proposed action will be a social investment. The definition is wide and may include some actions which would not ordinarily be thought of as investments. The charity will look to develop a Social Investment Policy in time, as required and follow the Charity Commission guidelines.

Contribution made by volunteers.	Para 1.38	The charity does not currently have any volunteers. The Newfoundland Canine Trust is committed to best practice in the recruitment, support, and management of volunteers. This policy covers volunteers acting 'on behalf of' The Newfoundland Canine Trust and it is underpinned by the following principles: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Newfoundland Canine Trust will ensure that volunteers are properly integrated into the organisational structure. • The Newfoundland Canine Trust expects that trustees and its staff would work positively with volunteers and, where appropriate, will actively seek to involve them in their work. • The Newfoundland Canine Trust recognises that volunteers require satisfying work and will help volunteers do their work effectively.
