

REACHING OUT
FOUNDATION

TRUSTEES STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS FOR YEAR ENDING 2022

This year the charity did not raise any funds from the public

The Charity applied for a grant but did not receive any in the year 2022

The Charity did not receive grants from any source either from abroad, the government or any other source.

All expenditure came from Trustees [Lydia koranteng and Abraham koranteng] own resources

The amount of £3500 spent in Ghana was mainly

- 1] To secure sewing machines for training students in Reaching Out Widows School
- 2] General materials for practical work and sewing accessories, grey baft fabrics, sewing threads
- 3] Cost of shipping services to Ghana
- 4] Cost of securing logistics and distribution of items to widows villages
- 5] Cost of running monthly meetings to support widows includes transportation and refreshments
- 6] Rehabilitation programme-supporting unwell and aging widows with mobility aids
- 7] Medical aid-payment of prescription and general upkeep of those recovering from stroke/accident/eye care
- 8] Salary of Facilitator [[Sewing Tutor]
- 9] Rent for sewing school building
- 10] Cost of Electricity
- 11] Financial support to volunteers in Ghana

Statement prepared by Lydia Koranteng and Abraham Koranteng
24th July 2024

Cotton Court,
Church Street Preston
PR1 3BY

01772503389

info@reachingoutwidows.com
akuladze@gmail.com

