I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To relieve financial hardship among poor people, orphans and other people in need by means of, but not exclusively, making grants for providing or paying for items, equipment, services and facilities, including the provision of food, water and clothing, costs for medical treatment and costs for attending school for the benefit of the said persons.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the period, the trustees secured donations from the public for humanitarian projects in India. The trustees identified partner charities in India for the delivery of humanitarian projects which allowed the trustees to deliver the winter blanket distribution, the water well project, the water hand pump project, widows support project, livelihood support project, medical aid project, school sponsorship project, shelter project and feeding project for the poor benefitting over 8,600 poor and needy people during the period.

The trustees have had due regard to the public benefit guidance of the charity commission and confirm that they are delivering public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the period, the trustees secured donations from the public for humanitarian projects in India. The trustees identified partner charities in India for the delivery of humanitarian projects which allowed the trustees to deliver the winter blanket distribution, the water well project, the water hand pump project, widows support project, livelihood support project, medical aid project, school sponsorship project, shelter project and feeding project for the poor benefitting over 8,600 poor and needy people during the period.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

During the period, the charity secured total donations of £244,131 which were all unrestricted for various project appeals for those in financial hardship in India. This was an increase from previous year because of the extra appeals carried out and generous support of donors. The expenditure for the year was £246,546 which were mainly grants of £245,523 for the delivery of humanitarian projects. This resulted in a deficit of £2,415 which was met with prior year surpluses. At the end of the period, the charity held £216 in reserves which were held for future charitable expenditure. The trustees have a policy not to hold reserves but to expend surpluses in future periods for charitable expenditure.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

NONE

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
