Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (e.g. trust deed, constitution)	CIO – Foundation constitution
How the charity is constituted (e.g. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO)
Trustee selection methods (e.g. appointed by, elected by)	(a) Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. (b) In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity is reliant on volunteers to assist in providing its services to the public in the event of a death.

In addition, the Charity works closely with the Local Registrars, Area Health Authorities and The Coroners officers. The Charity has formed links with all these organisations and have become a point of reference for them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are the advancement of Islamic faith for the public benefit by the provision of a burial service specifically for but not limited to those who follow the Muslim faith together with advice support and assistance in relation to the procedures and practices relating to the burial of the deceased.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity provides the services and items necessary to achieve their objects in the governing document. This includes, but not limited to, the following:

- a) Provide facilities and services for the washing, transportation, and the burial of the deceased free of charge (including liaising with partner organisations where required).
- (b) Provide advice and assistance in relation to all aspects relating to the legal disposal of the deceased in the UK.
- (c) Dealing with other regulatory bodies and service providers relating to burials and all other aspects on behalf of the deceased and/or their families.

Charity Commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently, make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the charity will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grant making;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The charity is reliant on volunteers to assist in providing the aforementioned services to the public in the event of a death.

The charity is truly fortunate and appreciative of the time and effort provided (and continue to provide) by its volunteers to assist those in their time of need and grief – Thank you to all volunteers!

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has assisted in excess of 40 free burials within the West Yorkshire area during the year up to 31/12/24.

The charity was also able to raise funds to help them to achieve their objectives and provide their services.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity aims to hold at least c£5,000 as reserves, in order to carry its objects when income is low.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The Charity has not undertaken any fundraising drives during the year, it has mainly been approached by members of the public who have suffered a bereavement within their family/friends, and they have offered to donate towards the cost of services we provide.

The Charity will undertake fundraising activity on a "needs" basis rather than to hold surplus funds.

The Charity is now hoping to use the excess funds to purchase a second Van/Hearse due to the volume of death being catered for.

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently, make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the charity will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grant making;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The charity is reliant on volunteers to assist in providing the aforementioned services to the public in the event of a death.

The charity is truly fortunate and appreciative of the time and effort provided (and continue to provide) by its volunteers to assist those in their time of need and grief – Thank you to all volunteers!

Section DAchievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has successfully registered with Charities Commission.
 The charity has prepared policies to help govern themselves.
 The charity has successfully purchased a bespoke Van/Hearse capable of transporting the coffin of the deceased.
 The charity has assisted in excess of 100 free burials within the West Yorkshire area during the period up to 31/12/22 including COVID related deaths.

Section EFinancial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity aims to hold at least c£5,000 as reserves, in order to carry its objects when income is low.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The Charity has not undertaken any fundraising drives during the year, it has mainly been approached by members of the public who have suffered a bereavement within their family/friends, and they have offered to donate towards the cost of services we provide.

The Charity will undertake fundraising activity on "needs" basis rather than to hold surplus funds.

The charity relies heavily on these public donations and has used the majority of these funds in 2021 to acquire a bespoke Van/Hearse that is readily available to assist the public in the event of a death.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the period ended 13/10/2021 to 31/12/2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
