Independent Examination of Jennian Foundation

By Susan Shayler

I am satisfied that the Jennian Foundation is permitted to have an independent examination and is eligible to provide receipts and payments accounts.

Accounting records kept

An Income and Expenditure Account and Balance Sheet are kept on an Excel spreadsheet. Each transaction is dated and separately identified with a description.

Bank Statements are electronically filed for each month. The investment account statement identifies each cash transaction separately. Similarly so for Asset Movement Acquisitions and Disposals.

All records are electronically held on Google Drive with secure access.

No physical cash has been received or distributed. The charity has incurred negligible costs and no overheads have been charged to the accounts. Receipts/vouchers have been kept for all outgoings including donations.

Reconciliation to the records kept

The Bank Statements reconcile to the Income and Expenditure Account. The investment account agrees to the Income and Expenditure account. Both the Income and Expenditure and Investment Account agree with the CC16a Annual Report.

Format of the records kept

The format of the records kept are consistent with receipts and payments accounting. No accruals or prepayments have been recorded. There are no receivables or payables recorded. No physical stock is held.

Having examined the accounts of the Jennian Foundation I have no concerns to raise with the Trustees or the Charity Commission. I wish the charity well in its endeavours.
