Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

1. To act as a resource for children and young people up to the age of 25 diagnosed with Special Educational Needs (SEN) or Mental Health (MH) Difficulties living in South East England by providing advice and assistance and organising programmes of physical, educational and other activities as a means of:

- a. advancing in life and helping young people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals;
- b. advancing education;
- c. relieving unemployment;
- d. providing recreational and leisure time activity in the interests of social welfare for people living in the area of benefit who have need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons.

2. To enhance the development and education of children under statutory school age by encouraging parents to understand and provide for the needs of their children through free stay and play groups and practical support and advice

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity's Information, Advice and Guidance Service has supported families using an Early Intervention approach to help teach resilience and overcome emerging challenges they are facing. Frontline Practitioners work with families implementing evidence based interventions. Through this service the charity has supported 6 families during this period.

The charity delivered Parent and Toddler Workshops. The session provided fun activities that supported the early development in babies and toddlers and provided parents and carers with a safe space to bring their child to meet with other parents and carers and to seek specialists advice from our colleagues.

The charity worked with the local authority to support the delivery of rapid COVID-19 tests to the community.

The charity delivered a free CPR course for the local community. 6 people were successfully trained in this course.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity's young trustee received an award from the local college for their work with the charity.

The charity assessed itself against the Charity Excellence Framework and achieved its kitemark. The trustees are using the information from the assessment to further improve how the charity operates.

The charity was awarded the Bronze Award from Kent and Medway's Healthy Workplaces Scheme. This recognises that the charity takes steps to support the health and wellbeing of its colleagues and will be working towards the silver award in 2023.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

1. To act as a resource for children and young people up to the age of 25 diagnosed with Special Educational Needs (SEN) or Mental Health (MH) Difficulties living in South East England by providing advice and assistance and organising programmes of physical, educational and other activities as a means of:
 - a. advancing in life and helping young people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals;
 - b. advancing education;
 - c. relieving unemployment;
 - d. providing recreational and leisure time activity in the interests of social welfare for people living in the area of benefit who have need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons.
2. To enhance the development and education of children under statutory school age by encouraging parents to understand and provide for the needs of their children through free stay and play groups and practical support and advice

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity's Information, Advice and Guidance Service has supported families using an Early Intervention approach to help teach resilience and overcome emerging challenges they are facing. Frontline Practitioners work with families implementing evidence based interventions. Through this service the charity has supported 6 families during this period.

The charity delivered Parent and Toddler Workshops. The session provided fun activities that supported the early development in babies and toddlers and provided parents and carers with a safe space to bring their child to meet with other parents and carers and to seek specialists advice from our colleagues.
