The Trust was formed following the successful series of lectures organised by the Twickenham Luminaries and the Thames Luminaries.

This year, the Trust organised a series of 13 talks titled “Food & Drink”, organised into two ‘courses’ of 6 and 7 over October and November 2022. This was followed by a smaller series of 11 talks starting in July titled “Love & Death”, running until November this year. Over the year, 2255 tickets were distributed and net revenue was £9,215.

We welcomed two new partners this year: Syon Park and Gunnersbury Park & Museum making a total of 15.

The Trust, with financial support from Royal Holloway London, commissioned a new website. The website is visually attractive, easy for visitors to navigate and simple to maintain. Information about future talks is clearly displayed and video recordings of past talks are available.

Name	Dates acted if not for whole year

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Trust's primary activities are planning, publicising and running public on-line lectures on subjects relating to heritage properties in London. At the time of writing, 14 such properties are participants. The lectures are free but attendees are encouraged to make donations which are divided amongst the participating organisations after the Trust's expenses have been deducted.

All lectures are recorded and edited versions are placed on-line for the benefit of the wider public.

The Trust also provides a forum for exchanging ideas and practical information relevant to the management of heritage properties.
