Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the Trust are to advance the education of the public in the subject of the built, natural and heritage landscape of London in particular but not exclusively through public lectures, seminars and conferences

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Trust's primary activities are planning, publicising and running public on-line lectures on subjects relating to heritage properties in London. At the time of writing (December 2025), 18 such properties are participants. The lectures are free but attendees are encouraged to make donations which are divided amongst the participating organisations after the Trust's expenses have been deducted.

All lectures are recorded and edited versions are placed on-line for the benefit of the wider public.

The Trust also acts as a forum for exchanging ideas and practical information relevant to the management of heritage properties.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Trust was formed following the successful series of lectures organised by the Twickenham Luminaries and the Thames Luminaries.

This year, the Trust completed the previous year's series of talks and organised a new series of 8 online talks. Over the year, 1377 tickets were distributed and net revenue from donations was £5,878 from the current series and 668 tickets with net revenue of £1,781 from the previous series.

In partnership with Orleans House Gallery, the Trust organised a live event titled 'Contemporary Arts & Cultural Heritage' at which speakers from Pope's Grotto, Orleans House Gallery, Boston Manor and Pitzhanger Manor discussed ways in which our partners bring contemporary art into dialogue with cultural heritage. 99 tickets were sold raising £1,184 for the Trust.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Trust retains a minimum reserve of £1,000 for organising the next lecture series and other expenses.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
