YOUNG MEDWAY
TRUSTEES' REPORT
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH 2025

OBJECTIVES AND ACHIEVEMENTS

1. To promote the efficiency and effectiveness of charities providing services for children or young people by providing support, advice, training and other assistance
2. To promote the effective use of resources for charitable purposes by charitable and non-charitable bodies working with children and young people by providing advice, services and consultations.
3. To advance in life and relieve the needs of children and young people through making grants to organisations that do any or all of the following:
 - the provision of recreational and leisure time activities provided in the interest of social welfare, designed to improve their conditions of life;
 - providing support and activities which develop their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as mature and responsible individuals.

In this third year of operation Young Medway continued to develop its partnership with the Young People's Foundation Trust and Medway Council. Key activities included the delivery three networking sessions and two training opportunities for members. This work was facilitated by funding from the Young People's Foundation Trust which enabled the commissioning of Young Ealing Foundation to provide some administrative and consultancy support to help organise the offer to members. Networking sessions were well attended and received by member organisations. The two training sessions were well received but had lower attendance and this part of the program is under review. Young Medway has also partnered with Medway Council to copromote spaces on its monthly training for volunteers in member organisation. This began in January and sessions have been well received.

Throughout this year trustees have operated in accordance with the guidance from the Charity Commission, focussing their work on the public benefit.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

During 2024-25 Young Medway achieved various goals, including:

- Delivering a program of activities to support members
- Further developing online content including funding support and guidance.

FINANCIAL REVIEW AND RESERVES POLICY

By the 31st March of 2025 Young Medway held £45,502 in its accounts with the Charities Aid Foundation Bank. £34,857 of this was restricted fund, from which £30,337 was held on behalf of youth projects previously administered by Woodlands Youth Centre, Strood Youth Centre, Woodies Youth Centre and Parkwood Youth Centre. These legacy funds were donated to Young Medway at its formation as the previous charities closed in 2021/22.

In addition, it held £15,165 associated with the direct activity of Young Medway. These include Restricted Funds of £3,085 remaining of the 23/24 £10,000 grant from the Colyer Fergusson Charitable Trust and £1,434 from the Young People's Foundation Trust. Both of these relate to support costs and developing Young Medway's membership offer. Young Medway gratefully received a significant donation of £3,198 from the Mayor of Medway in September 2024 who had fund raised for Young Medway as one of their chosen charities of their 2023/24 Mayoral Year.

All spending has remained within the boundaries of available funds.

Young Medway aims to hold three months of unrestricted funds. As a newly formed organisation the Trustees keep this policy under review. Young Medway is holding historical restricted funds totalling £30,337 on behalf of four youth centres in Medway. This has arisen after the winding down of the four small local charities in 2021/22 that held the funds connected to each youth centre. Each were struggling to recruit enough active local management committee members to keep them viable as stand alone committees. The remaining funds are restricted to being spent for the benefit of young people who attend those youth centres. Young Medway, in conjunction with local young people, will be spending down these funds over the next two years. Young Medway have a process in place, that is available on request for agreeing to hold further funds, which must be approved by the Chair and Treasurer.

There are no specific concerns or reasons for the charity to not be able to continue to run in its current format. However, the charity is seeking core funds to be able employ staff and further develop its business.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH 2025

Structure, Governance and management

Young Medway is a Charitably Incorporated Organisation or CIO.

The trustee board is made up as described by the below section of the constitution:

(3) Number of charity trustees

(a) There should be:

Not less than 3 nor more than 12 elected trustees;

1 ex officio trustee; and

Not less than 2 nor more than 4
nominated trustees.

(b) There must be at least three charity trustees. If the number falls below this minimum, the remaining trustee or trustees may act only to call a meeting of the charity trustees, or appoint a new charity trustee.

(c) The maximum number of charity trustees that can be appointed is as provided in sub-clause (a) of this clause. No trustee appointment may be made in excess of these provisions.

Trustee selection is detailed in the below section of the constitution:

Appointment of charity trustees

(1) Appointed charity trustees

(a) Apart from the first charity

trustees, every appointed trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.

(b) In selecting individuals for appointment as appointed charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

(2) Ex officio charity trustee

The Portfolio holder for Medway Children's Services will either serve as or nominate an ex-officio trustee for the time being ("the office holder") shall automatically, by virtue of holding that office ("ex officio"), be a charity trustee.

If unwilling to act as a charity trustee, the office holder may:

(a) before accepting appointment as a charity trustee, give notice in writing to the trustees of their unwillingness to act in that capacity; or

(b) after accepting appointment as a charity trustee, resign under the provisions contained in clause 15 (Retirement and removal of charity trustees). The office of ex officio charity trustee will then remain vacant until the office holder ceases to hold office.

(3) Nominated Charity Trustees

(a) Medway Council ("the appointing body") may appoint up to three charity trustees.

(b) Any appointment must be made at a meeting held according to the ordinary practice of the appointing body.

(c) Each appointment must be for a term of [3] years.

(d) The appointment will be effective from the later of:

(i) the date of the vacancy; or

(ii) the date on which the CIO is informed of the appointment.

(e) The person appointed need not be a member of the appointing body.

(f) A trustee appointed by the appointing body has the same duty under Clause 12(1) as the other charity trustees to act in the way they decide in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO.

TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES

The Charities Act 2011 require the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. In preparing those financial statements the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the trust will continue in existence.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the trust. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the trust and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Signed on behalf of the Trustees ..  .., Trustee.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT ON THE ACCOUNTS

Report to the trustees/members of Young Medway on the accounts for the year ended 31st March 2025 set out on pages 7 to 10.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF TRUSTEES AND EXAMINER

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act),
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

BASIS OF INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the organisation and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:

- proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 130 of the Act); and
- accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

OBJECTIVES AND ACHIEVEMENTS

1. To promote the efficiency and effectiveness of charities providing services for children or young people by providing support, advice, training and other assistance
2. To promote the effective use of resources for charitable purposes by charitable and non-charitable bodies working with children and young people by providing advice, services and consultations.
3. To advance in life and relieve the needs of children and young people through making grants to organisations that do any or all of the following:
 - the provision of recreational and leisure time activities provided in the interest of social welfare, designed to improve their conditions of life;
 - providing support and activities which develop their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as mature and responsible individuals.

In this second year of operation Young Medway continued to develop its partnership with the Young People's Foundation Trust and Medway Council. Key activities included the planning and development of the 24/25 offer for members, which includes a mixture of training and networking events. This work was facilitated by funding from the Young People's Foundation Trust which enabled the commissioning of consultant services to organise the offer.

Trustees were also active in applying for additional funds through the Colyer Fergusson Trust to further develop the Membership offer.

Throughout this year trustees have operated in accordance with the guidance from the Charity Commission, focussing their work on the public benefit.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

During 2023-24 Young Medway achieved various goals, including:

- Successfully applying for additional support costs and funds.
- Developing a program of activities to support members – running 24-25.
- Further developing online content including funding support and guidance.

FINANCIAL REVIEW AND RESERVES POLICY

By the 31st March of 2024 Young Medway held £89,534 in its accounts with the Charities Aid Foundation Bank. £84,673 of this was restricted fund, from which £68,110 was held on behalf of youth projects previously administered by Woodlands Youth Centre, Strood Youth Centre, Woodies Youth Centre and Parkwood Youth Centre. These legacy funds were donated to Young Medway at its formation as the previous charities closed.

In addition, it held £17,142 associated with the direct activity of Young Medway. These funds include grants received in 23/24 including £10,000 from the Colyer Fergusson Charitable Trust and £7,500 from the Young People's Foundation Trust as part of a Department of Culture Media and Sport grant to support the foundation of new Young People's Foundations. Both of these relate to support costs and developing Young Medway's membership offer. They were all received later in the financial year and mainly pertain to spending in 24/25.

All spending has remained within the boundaries of available funds.

Young Medway aims to hold three months of unrestricted funds. As a newly formed organisation the Trustees keep this policy under review. Young Medway is holding historical restricted funds totalling £68,110 on behalf of four youth centres in Medway. (a) Apart from the first charity trustees, every appointed trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.

(b) In selecting individuals for appointment as appointed charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

(2) Ex officio charity trustee

The Portfolio holder for Medway Children's Services will either serve as or nominate an ex-officio trustee for the time being ("the office holder") shall automatically, by virtue of holding that office ("ex officio"), be a charity trustee.

If unwilling to act as a charity trustee, the office holder may:

(a) before accepting appointment as a charity trustee, give notice in writing to the trustees of their unwillingness to act in that capacity; or

(b) after accepting appointment as a charity trustee, resign under the provisions contained in clause 15 (Retirement and removal of charity trustees). The office of ex officio charity trustee will then remain vacant until the office holder ceases to hold office.

(3) Nominated Charity Trustees

(a) Medway Council ("the appointing body") may appoint up to three charity trustees.

(b) Any appointment must be made at a meeting held according to the ordinary practice of the appointing body.

(c) Each appointment must be for a term of [3] years.

(d) The appointment will be effective from the later of:

(i) the date of the vacancy; or

(ii) the date on which the CIO is informed of the appointment.

(e) The person appointed need not be a member of the appointing body.

(f) A trustee appointed by the appointing body has the same duty under Clause 12(1) as the other charity trustees to act in the way they decide in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO.

TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES

The Charities Act 2011 require the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. In preparing those financial statements the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the trust will continue in existence.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the trust. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the trust and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Signed on behalf of the Trustees , Trustee.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT ON THE ACCOUNTS

Report to the trustees/members of Young Medway on the accounts for the year ended 31st March 2024 set out on pages 7 to 10.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF TRUSTEES AND EXAMINER

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act),
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

BASIS OF INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the organisation and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:

- proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 130 of the Act); and
- accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

TRUSTEES' REPORT
FOR THE 17 MONTHS ENDED 31ST MARCH 2023

OBJECTIVES AND ACHIEVEMENTS

1. To promote the efficiency and effectiveness of charities providing services for children or young people by providing support, advice, training and other assistance
2. To promote the effective use of resources for charitable purposes by charitable and non-charitable bodies working with children and young people by providing advice, services and consultations.
3. To advance in life and relieve the needs of children and young people through making grants to organisations that do any or all of the following:
 - the provision of recreational and leisure time activities provided in the interest of social welfare, designed to improve their conditions of life;
 - providing support and activities which develop their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as mature and responsible individuals.

In this first year of operation Young Medway developed its internal structures and policies, partnering with the Young People's Foundation Trust and Medway Council to establish appropriate organisational, administrative, and operating processes. This work included creating its website, engaging with members, and developing its business plan.

Funding from the Young People's Foundation Trust enabled Young Medway to employ the services of a consultant from October 22-March 23 who supported the organisation to develop its structure and membership offer.

Funding from the Kent Community Foundation supported the development of the logo and website, as well as contributing to basic start-up costs.

Throughout this year trustees have operated in accordance with the guidance from the Charity Commission, focussing their work on the public benefit.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

During 2022-23 Young Medway achieved various goals, including:

- Finalising key policies and procedures.
- Delivering three consultation events with local youth organisations to better understand their needs and how Young Medway could be of support.
- Launching the membership offer.
- Support the development of Young Medway's Theory of Change, assisted by in-kind support from the Young People's Foundation Trust and the Centre for Youth Impact.
- Beginning work with its partners on branding and marketing.
- Developing a fundraising strategy.
- Submitting a funding bid to Children in Need for three years of core costs.
- Commissioning a website signposting tools and resources for members. These currently include signposting useful funders and toolkits around safeguarding, youth work, tackling youth violence and measuring impact.

Financial Review and Reserves Policy

By the 31st March of 2023 Young Medway held £88,522 in its accounts with the Charities Aid Foundation Bank. £86,619 of this was held in reserve on behalf of youth projects previously administered by Woodlands Youth Centre, Strood Youth Centre, Woodies Youth Centre and Parkwood Youth Centre. These legacy funds were donated to Young Medway at its formation as the previous charities closed.

In addition, Young Medway was awarded £1,975 from the Kent Community Foundation to help with support costs and developing its membership offer and £7,070 from the Young People's Foundation Trust as part of a Department of Culture Media and Sport grant to support the foundation of new Young People's Foundation.

All spending have remained within the boundaries of available funds.

Young Medway holds funds in reserves related to legacy projects from the four previous charities. These funds are used to support work with young people in connection with the four legacy projects. Funds relate to project that benefit the personal, social education of young people in Medway.

There are currently no liabilities that would need to be settled on dissolving the charity.

There are no specific concerns or reasons for the charity to not be able to continue to run in its current format. However, the charity is seeking core funds to be able employ staff and further develop its business.

Structure, Governance and management

Young Medway is a Charitably Incorporated Organisation or CIO.

The trustee board is made up as described by the below section of the constitution:

(3) Number of charity trustees

(a) There should be:

Not less than 3 nor more than 12 elected trustees;

1 ex officio trustee; and

nominated trustees.

(b) There must be at least three charity trustees. If the number falls below this minimum, the remaining trustee or trustees may act only to call a meeting of the charity trustees, or appoint a new charity trustee.

(c) The maximum number of charity trustees that can be appointed is as provided in sub-clause (a) of this clause. No trustee appointment may be made in excess of these provisions.

Trustee selection is detailed in the below section of the constitution:

Appointment of charity trustees

(1) Appointed charity trustees

(a) Apart from the first charity

trustees, every appointed trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.

(b) In selecting individuals for appointment as appointed charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

(2) Ex officio charity trustee

The Portfoliholder for Medway Children's Services will either serve as or nominate an ex-officio trustee for the time being ("the office holder") shall automatically, by virtue of holding that office ("ex officio"), be a charity trustee.

If unwilling to act as a charity trustee, the office holder may:

(a) before accepting appointment as a charity trustee, give notice in writing to the trustees of their unwillingness to act in that capacity; or

(b) after accepting appointment as a charity trustee, resign under the provisions contained in clause 15 (Retirement and removal of charity trustees). The office of ex officio charity trustee will then remain vacant until the office holder ceases to hold office.

(3) Nominated Charity Trustees

(a) Medway Council ("the appointing body") may appoint up to three charity trustees.

(b) Any appointment must be made at a meeting held according to the ordinary practice of the appointing body.

(c) Each appointment must be for a term of [3] years.

(d) The appointment will be effective from the later of:

(i) the date of the vacancy; or

(ii) the date on which the CIO is informed of the appointment.

(e) The person appointed need not be a member of the appointing body.

(f) A trustee appointed by the appointing body has the same duty under Clause 12(1) as the other charity trustees to act in the way they decide in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO.

TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES

The Charities Act 2011 require the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. In preparing those financial statements the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the trust will continue in existence.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the trust. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the trust and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT ON THE ACCOUNTS

Report to the trustees/members of Young Medway on the accounts for the 17 months period ended 31st March 2023 set out on pages 8 to 11.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF TRUSTEES AND EXAMINER

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act),
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

BASIS OF INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the organisation and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:

- proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 130 of the Act); and
- accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
