Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The main achievement was saving 1,500 heritage carp and moving them to our conservation pools. We secured three new conservation pools during the period – the result of our landowner engagement to support the charity. We now have over 2,000 fish in our care. Promoting this conservation work led to the education of 8,805 people and inspired 26 new hands-on volunteers.

Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern.	Para 1.23	N/A. The Wild Carp Trust is in a strong position to grow and deliver further benefit.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	Funding was from grants (£3,500), donations (£400), memberships (£1,216), and our annual fundraising auction (£1,270).
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	Investment during this period was prioritised for equipment needed for carp rehoming and ongoing care (£4,913) critical to the promotion of conservation and associated promotion and education activities (£1,544).
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The charity's success is reliant on a small group of people volunteering their time for free, especially a committee of six people delivering 90% of the effort. Risk remains, as in the previous period, that insufficient volunteer resources, time and skills, will limit our activities. Further volunteers and a network of expert advisers and contractors is required to mitigate this risk, with anticipated increase in cost.

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The main achievement was our direct involvement and leadership of the Llyngwyn carp rescue and rehoming. These very famous and historic carp were at risk due to pollution. We began this activity by rehoming 100 adult fish during the reporting period, moving them to a dedicated conservation pool, which gave us opportunity to document the activity for promotional and educational purposes and in so doing meeting our charity's objectives.
