Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are to advance such charitable purposes (according to the laws of England and Wales) as the trustees see fit from time to time in particular but not limited to the promotion of human rights, (as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and subsequent United Nations conventions and declarations) by all or any of the following means:

- (a) research into human rights issues;
- (b) raising awareness of human rights issues;
- (c) promoting public support for human rights; and
- (d) relieving need among victims of human rights abuse.

The above purposes to be furthered by way of making grants to individuals in need and/or charities working to further such purposes.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

This year, due to limited capacity, The Trust focused on offering workshops for people in the Bristol and Cardiff area, creating an accessible platform for the lived experiences of queer refugees. A project fusing storytelling, belly-dancing, drag, art & robotics, and collaborating with queer refugees.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Delivered story sharing & shaping workshops with LGBTQIA+ refugees and people seeking asylum based in Bristol & Cardiff

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

As a grantmaking charity, part funded by its founder, and entirely volunteer-run, SEAT has a clear view of future income, set against current commitments. Any further funding, e.g. crowdfunding, is additional to its core commitments, therefore reserves only need to cover a well-defined set of grant commitments.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None
