Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The aim of the Society shall be to educate the public in the arts; and in particular the musical and dramatic art of staged productions, and where possible, to provide money for charitable purposes. Throughout the financial year the society has successfully performed 4 musical productions which have educated people in a variety of social aspects. We have developed a youth society, affiliated to BMTC, which is all inclusive and gives children from all backgrounds the opportunity to perform in a theatre setting. Throughout the year we have performed 2 major shows with the main company, one of which particularly educational in terms of gender/acceptance and stereotyping. The Youth Section did a successful production of Annie Jnr and as a result we have recruited more children to work with us, including a number from vulnerable backgrounds. As a society, when we make a surplus, we give donations to a number of local charities, these have included in the past: Carter The Brave, Acorns Hospice, Stephen Sutton Charity.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 / 12 / 2024.

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The aim of the Society shall be to educate the public in the arts; and in particular the musical and dramatic art of staged productions, and where possible, to provide money for charitable purposes. Throughout the financial year the society has successfully performed 4 musical productions which have educated people in a variety of social aspects. We have developed a youth society, affiliated to BMTC, which is all inclusive and gives children from all backgrounds the opportunity to perform in a theatre setting. Throughout the year we have performed 2 major shows with the main company, one of which particularly educational in terms of gender/acceptance and stereotyping. The Youth Section did a successful production of Annie Jnr and as a result we have recruited more children to work with us, including a number from vulnerable backgrounds. As a society, when we make a surplus, we give donations to a number of local charities, these have included in the past: Carter The Brave, Acorns Hospice, Stephen Sutton Charity.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 / 12 / 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The aim of the Society shall be to educate the public in the arts; and in particular the musical and dramatic art of staged productions, and where possible, to provide money for charitable purposes. Throughout the financial year the society has successfully performed 4 musical productions which have educated people in a variety of social aspects. We have developed a youth society, affiliated to BMTC, which is all inclusive and gives children from all backgrounds the opportunity to perform in a theatre setting. We have celebrated a 50-year anniversary through a concert, which has included a large majority of previous members and a wide audience. As a society, when we make a surplus, we give donations to a number of local charities, these have included in the past Carter The Brave, Acorns Hospice, Stephen Sutton Charity.

On accounts for the year

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 / 12 / 2022.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

2.3 EXPENDITURE AND LIABILITIES

Liability recognition Liabilities are recognised where it is more likely than not that there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to pay out resources and the amount of the obligation can be measured with reasonable certainty.

Governance and support costs Support costs have been allocated between governance costs and other support. Governance costs comprise all costs involving public accountability of the charity and its compliance with regulation and good practice.
Support costs include central functions and have been allocated to activity cost categories on a basis consistent with the use of resources, eg allocating property costs by floor areas, or per capita, staff costs by the time spent and other costs by their usage.

Grants with performance conditions Where the charity gives a grant with conditions for its payment being a specific level of service or output to be provided, such grants are only recognised in the SoFA once the recipient of the grant has provided the specified service or output.

Grants payable without performance conditions Where there are no conditions attaching to the grant that enables the donor charity to realistically avoid the commitment, a liability for the full funding obligation must be recognised.
