- a) Payment of school, tuition and examination fees.
- b) Payment for school uniforms, books and other related items'

Additional details of objectives and activities

I would like to advise that we have been inactive since 2023 as a result of financial constraints. The charity had no single income in this period and the board doesn't see that changing any time soon. As a result, we have officially suspended all activities until the board decides otherwise.

Other optional information

The board will review our position in the year commencing 1st May 2026 but if there are any changes before this time, we will advise the commission.
