Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO being for the public benefit to support preserve and protect the health of cancer survivors and their families and the health of families bereaved by cancer by providing and assisting in the provision of facilities, practical and emotional support, guidance and therapy to enable such persons to rebuild their lives whilst recovering from the effects and traumas that illness brings.

This year we had meetings and set up the charity and spread out the charity objectives to the community. We were available to listen to the needs of the community and prepare for future services. We did not do any activities and had no income or expenditure. We took guidance from the charity commission who helped us with all templates and information needed to start the charity. We also opened a bank account.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

We wrote up policies on equal rights and safety.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The start of this charity all set up to use has been the greatest achievement this year.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We hope to always have £500 free reserves in the bank.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
