Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts:

Type of governing document:

The charity's governing document is a constitution, which was established on 25th July 2021, with no subsequent amendments.

How the charity is constituted:

The Sadaqah Jariyah Foundation is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organization (CIO).

Trustee selection methods:

Trustees of our CIO are appointed in accordance with the provisions outlined in our constitution.

- 1) Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.
- 2) In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Additional Governance Issues:

1. Policies and Procedures for Trustee Induction and Training:

Our charity makes sure new trustees understand their roles and responsibilities through a detailed induction process. New trustees undergo a induction process, which includes familiarisation with the charity's mission, values, governance structure, and legal obligations. Furthermore, trustees receive opportunities to take part in regular training sessions to enhance their understanding of their roles and responsibilities, as well as to stay updated on relevant laws, regulations, and best practices.

2. Organisational Structure and Network:

Our charity maintains a clear organisational structure, with defined roles and responsibilities for staff, volunteers, and trustees. We operate within a wider network of stakeholders, including partner organisations, community groups, and government agencies, to collaborate on initiatives and leverage resources for maximum impact. This network enhances our reach and effectiveness in delivering our charitable objectives.

3. Relationship with Related Parties:

We uphold transparency and integrity in our relationships with related parties, including donors, beneficiaries, contractors, and partner organizations. Our charity ensures that all transactions and interactions with related parties are conducted ethically and in accordance with relevant laws and regulations. We maintain appropriate documentation and oversight to mitigate any conflicts of interest and uphold the best interests of the charity and its stakeholders.

4. Trustees' Consideration of Major Risks and Risk Management Procedures:

Trustees regularly evaluate and consider major risks facing the charity, including financial, operational, legal, and reputational risks. Our charity has established risk management procedures to identify, assess, mitigate, and monitor these risks effectively. This includes implementing internal controls, maintaining adequate reserves, and having policies and procedures in place to address emergencies and serious incidents. Trustees actively engage in discussions and decision-making processes to ensure that risks are managed responsibly and in alignment with the charity's strategic objectives.

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document:

The objectives of the Charitable Incorporated Organization (CIO) are to serve the public benefit through:

We regularly update our supporters on the progress and impact of these projects through our blog, fostering transparency and trust in our operations.

Statutory Declaration:

The trustees have taken into account the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit in undertaking the activities mentioned above, ensuring that they are conducted for the benefit of the public.

Achievements and performance

Summary of Main Activities Undertaken for Public Benefit:

Our charity is dedicated to serving the public benefit through activities aligned with our objectives:

(a) Alleviating Absolute or Relative Poverty:

These efforts empower beneficiaries to overcome economic challenges and lead more dignified lives.

(b) Promoting the Advancement of Islam:

- Our projects, including Hifdh Sponsorship, Quran & Books Distribution, and Masjid Construction, contribute to the advancement of Islamic faith and practices. By supporting the memorization and preservation of the Quran through Hifdh Sponsorship and providing access to religious literature and facilitating the construction of mosques, we promote spiritual growth and foster a deeper connection to Islam within our communities.

- Transparent allocation of funds ensures that donors' contributions directly benefit the causes they care about, promoting trust and accountability within our community.

Overall, our charity's activities directly address the objectives of alleviating poverty and promoting Islamic faith and practices. Through strategic project implementation and responsible financial management, we continue to make a meaningful difference in the lives of those we serve, furthering our mission to create positive change and empower individuals and communities in need.

Financial review

Charity's Policy on Reserves:

At our charity, we adhere to a policy of maintaining reserves equal to six months' worth of operating expenses. This ensures financial stability, operational flexibility, and continuous essential services for our beneficiaries. Reserves serve as a strategic resource to mitigate risks, adapt to changes, and safeguard against unplanned closure. Holding reserves at this level prioritizes responsible stewardship, proactive risk management, and the long-term sustainability of our charitable mission.
