

Trustees' Annual Report

Charity Name: Jesus in My Corner

Founder: Andrew Flute

Purpose and Activities

Jesus in My Corner is a Christian charity dedicated to supporting individuals struggling with addiction. The charity provides practical help, emotional support, and spiritual guidance, while spreading the message of hope and transformation through faith in Jesus Christ. Our work includes outreach, one-to-one support, prayer, mentoring, and signposting individuals to further professional help where needed.

Public Benefit

The trustees confirm that they have had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. The charity's activities are carried out for the benefit of the public, particularly those affected by addiction, by promoting recovery, well-being, and spiritual renewal.

Trustees

The trustees who served during the period were:

- Dr Angela Quinn
- Joshua Pritchett
- Miles Bagshaw

Governance

The charity is governed by its trustees, who are responsible for the overall management and direction of the charity. Trustees meet regularly to review activities, ensure compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, and safeguard the charity's mission and values.

Looking Ahead

In the coming year, Jesus in My Corner aims to expand its outreach to reach more individuals in need, strengthen partnerships with local organisations, and continue sharing the message of Jesus with compassion and integrity.
