ANAMBRA WELFARE FOUNDATION

Report of the Trustees for the Year Ended 30 November 2023

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 November 2023. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

- 1) For the public benefit, to advance education in Igbo culture and language by providing free Igbo language tuition and lessons to all interested persons, organizing and holding annual Igbo cultural and New Yam festivals, and building a museum to hold art exhibitions promoting Igbo culture.
- 2) To promote social inclusion for the public benefit by working with people in Greater Manchester who are socially excluded on the grounds of their ethnic origin, religion, belief, or creed (particularly members of the Nigerian community), to relieve their needs and assist their integration into society, specifically by:
 - a) Holding bi-monthly lectures and workshops on citizenship, integration, health, and economic well-being, which will be free to all interested persons; and regularly hosting financial workshops covering key financial planning and advice.
 - b) Increasing or coordinating opportunities for members of the African community to engage with service providers, enabling those providers to adapt services to better meet the needs of that community.
 - c) Providing facilities for the care of children and elderly persons, helping service providers adapt services to better meet the community's needs.
 - d) Creating a 'Soup Kitchen' that will promote Igbo cuisine and offer outreach to those in need within the Manchester community by providing free food. The center will also serve as a place for young members of the Igbo community to volunteer while working towards their Duke of Edinburgh Awards.
 - e) Working with other organizations to create a safe center that can provide social support and advice to the elderly within the Manchester community, including social services and social workers.

ANAMBRA WELFARE FOUNDATION

Notes to the Financial Statements for the Year Ended 30 November 2023

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
