AEW Annual Report 2024

Wednesday Morning Prayer 6.30am on zoom continued weekly, 9 regulars with others who attend infrequently.

The trustees met on zoom 5 times with an additional AGM on 11th September.

4 in person meetings were held: two in Shrewsbury, one in Merthyr and one in Lampeter. Attendance was variable, with the Shrewsbury events attracting the higher numbers.

3 'Afternoon tea' zoom calls were held. Attendance had fallen and the decision was made to discontinue these events.

Beginning in July, Melanie and Andy recorded weekly 'Chats' about the upcoming Sunday Gospel readings and posted them onto YouTube. Viewing figures range from the teens to 94.

A mailing list of over 100 is held by the Secretary, though many people have now left Wales or have left ministry in the Anglican Church.

Efforts to fill the vacant Trustee positions did not succeed.

Plans for 2025:

Continue with the Wednesday prayers, in person meetings and videos.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Anglican Essentials Wales for the year ended 31st December 2022

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity for the year ended 31 December 2022 set out on pages 2 and 3.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and the examiner

As the charity trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). I report in respect of my examination of the Anglican Essentials Wales accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which give me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

1. the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
3. the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination. I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

AEW Annual Report 2023

Wednesday Morning Prayer 6.30am on zoom continued weekly, average attendance 7

The trustees met on zoom 6 times with an additional AGM in September.

3 in person meetings were held: two in Shrewsbury and one in Aberystwyth. Attendance was good, though the snow in March prevented many from attending.

2 'Afternoon tea' zoom calls were held in June and November. These had a small attendance but served an important purpose of supporting isolated faithful Anglicans.

An active mailing list of over 100 is held by the Secretary.

Plans for 2024:

Continue with the Wednesday prayers, in person meetings and Afternoon tea.

Produce simple videos discussing the gospel readings for the upcoming Sundays, to help people in their sermon preparation.

AEW Annual Report 2022

Wednesday Morning Prayer 6.30am on zoom continued weekly from March, average attendance 9

6 Videos on 39 Articles were released.

The trustees met on zoom 5 times with an additional AGM in June.

Monthly Evening Prayer services were held on Zoom for 5 months with very good numbers of between 25 and 30 in attendance. These stopped following the resignation of 2 Trustees (see below).

2 in person meetings were held in Rhyl in March and Cardiff in April. Attendance was good. Sadly the June meeting in Aberystwyth had to be cancelled and the October big event with Glen Scrivener was taken by another organisation.

Following the AGM both Marcus and Jim resigned their positions as Trustees. Marcus then rebranded the Hiraeth Videos and the Glen Scrivener event as Hope Cymru and delivered them with another group of people. This was a great shock to the remaining Trustees and meant that another resetting of goals and plans was needed.

Sam Earlandson and Will Marshall were appointed as Trustees at the meeting on 3rd October.

An active mailing list of over 100 is held by the Secretary and the AEW email and Website are now operational with thanks to Marc Walford.

Plans for 2023:

More in person events to encourage people to stand firm.
