Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The prevention and relief of poverty in the Flintshire and Cheshire district council area for those in need, especially the homeless, vulnerable and families in crisis, by providing compassionate and practical help including: advocacy, housing advice, career coaching, education and services to individuals and the provision of items to those in need.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

We have an impact on those who are struggling with less opportunities in life and those who lack life skills, experience and guidance by offering taster courses in expenditure and financial knowledge, curriculum and arts and crafts. We also support with the development of individual capabilities, competences, skills and understanding. We also offer support with CV, job searches and additional training courses to further clients skills.

We offer the provision of items such as food, furniture, clothing, toiletries, white goods, heating appliances and bedding. We offer advice and guidance and also advocate in meetings for clients that need extra support or clients that struggle to express themselves correctly and help them understand the outcome of a meeting and what is expected of them.

We offer support with financial hardship helping with hospital transport travel expenses to earn their living, utility top ups e.g. Electric, gas and mobile phone top ups. We have an outreach team that go out on the streets every week to support our street Homeless beneficiaries and we offer the provisions of food, drinks, essential clothing and sleeping bag and blankets to help our homeless in the community.

We offer weekly craft and skill building courses for anybody that is at a loose end, struggling with mental health issues, in isolation or loneliness.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Some of our beneficiaries have been supported into accommodation from being homeless.

Some beneficiaries have benefitted from drug and alcohol rehabilitation and interventions and are now leading a prosperous life with a better understanding on life goals and targets.

Some of our beneficiaries have got into full time employment and keep in regular contact with the charity and also give back when they can to help others still in need.

We are supporting families and individuals to be able to feed the whole family or themselves so they are not skipping meals or becoming ill and are also living in clean and sanitised environments.

We have brought individuals from our community including those with different ethnic back grounds together and they have formed friendships so this stops the exclusion and isolation in the area.

We have provided trips on a budget to enable families and individuals that are less fortunate in our community to enjoy and embrace other areas away from their usual community.

We have prevented loneliness and isolation with events and courses and also coffee mornings to gain feedback and a better understanding of what our beneficiaries want see happen or ideas of future events.

We have been Supported to help our beneficiaries by successfully securing grants and funding to enable the charity to deliver our daily achievements.

We have supplied countless provision of items to our street homeless community to enable them to eat, keep warm and survive harsh weathers.

We have supported beneficiaries and there families in may meetings and supported others with understanding and filling important documentation.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity reserves are constantly going up and down on a monthly basis due to donations and grants being made and expenditure for essential items. All trustees are responsible for making decisions on all money spent and decide what is classed as essential emergency funds to support our beneficiaries.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

The charity has no funds which are materially in deficit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity runs solely on donations and grants to help support local beneficiaries in our community and also to run our day to day office and all trustees voluntarily run the charity with some help from volunteers selected by the trustees. We also run fundraising events through out the year.
