Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Cariat Blanket Project ran 7 in person workshops during this period. All 7 of these were in South Wales. 3 were macrame workshops, 1 for a university for their staff as part of their wellbeing week, 1 was for a community craft group, and 1 was as part of a community fun day run by a community café in Cathays. The other 4 were run as seasonal craft workshops and taught a variety of crafts and creative mediums to attendees to then be able to use for positive wellbeing in their daily lives. They were open to anyone to attend and provided all the materials free of charge. The project also sent out 85 Cariat Blanket Boxes (care packages) in this period across the UK, providing signposting to support for mothers, blankets and hats for babies and notes of encouragement for wellbeing of mothers.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity ended the year with £783 in its bank account. This money will be spent to provide creative workshops in the next financial period, and continue to send Cariad Blanket Boxes to mums across the UK.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity does not have a policy for holding reserves, however the amount of money in the bank account is something that the trustees monitor closely. This next financial year the trustees will create a reserves policy, particularly in line with the increasing costs for the charity in terms of craft material inflation and postage inflation.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	Please see above.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	Please see above.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	None
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	N/A
