Principal activity

The principal activity of the charity has been to provide information, counselling, teaching, and promoting Christian relationships, marriages, and family life.

Governance

FOREVER AND EVER is governed by CIO – Foundation registered on 08 December 2021. All the Trustees were appointed on 21 May 2021.

Achievements and Performance

During this period, the Charity premiered the documentary series, launch the book Forever and Ever and employed a coordinator for all the social media handles. The charity has also been raising funds through speaking engagements.

Financial Position

A positive financial position and there are no creditors. The sum of £6221.93 was raised and £3520.32 spent on the production the Forever and Ever show – Marriage documentary. The income and expenditure are less than £25,000. Therefore, an Independent Examiner is not required to verify the accounts.

Plans for Future Periods

The Charity plans to commence recording of season three of the forever and ever show, writing the script for a movie. There is a live broadcast fortnightly in the pipeline.

Events After the Year-End

There have been no events after the year-end which will impact the accounts.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The Charities Act 2011 requires the Trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity.

The Trustee body is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable it to ensure that the accounts comply with the relevant legislation. It is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities, by establishing and maintaining a satisfactory system of control over the accounting records, cash holdings and all the charity's receipts and remittances.
