Summary

All Skin Tones is a charitable incorporated organisation registered in 2022 (1197168) that seeks to improve awareness around identification and treatment of dermatological conditions amongst people of darker skin tones. It has been set up by three doctors, and our overall aim is to improve education of dermatological conditions in patients with darker skin from doctors and also patients. We aim to develop a range of educational modules to improve the education of junior doctors and healthcare professionals.
