Structure and governance

The Phoenix Wellbeing Charitable Trust is a charity registered with the Charity Commission in England and Wales registration number 1197249.

The Charity is an unincorporated organisation and its governing documents are contained within the trust document.

Objectives and Activities

Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	A. To relieve sickness and to preserve the health of the patients of the Long Crendon surgery at Greenings, Long Crendon, Buckinghamshire by providing or assisting in the provision of equipment, facilities and services not normally provided by the statutory authorities and ancillary to those provided by the doctors. B. To provide financial and other assistance to any other exclusively charitable organisation that the trustees may in their absolute discretion determine.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	The Charity has received money from a variety of sources including a donation from Long Crendon day centre, sale of Christmas cards and a cookery book as well as a plant sale. The main focus of support of the Charity has been fund raising for the building of the Wellbeing Centre in Long Crendon. This building is intended to house a surgery and dispensary but also a number of other wellbeing activities which might not be supported by the NHS. The Charity intends to assist others in ensuring the land on which the Centre will be based continues to be fit for purpose and when built will support any activity which would enhance the Wellbeing of local people.

	The Charity enabled the commencement of development of the site in December 2021 to comply with planning obligations but limited progress has been made since that date although considerable discussions have been held with various parties to explore potential funding options.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	All trustees are aware of the guidance and have had regard to it.

Additional information

Policy on grant making	The charity is awaiting the building of a local Wellbeing Centre. When progress on this issue has been made discussions with stakeholders, together with local representatives (such as the local Parish councils), will advise the Charity on the additional unfunded needs of the centre or other wellbeing requirements.

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of the Phoenix Wellbeing Charitable Trust

I report to the trustees on my examination of the receipts and payment account and the statement of assets and liabilities ("the accounts") of the above charity ("the Charity") for the period from 1 January 2023 to 31 December 2023.

As the Charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

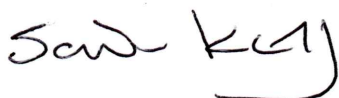

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
