OUR MISSION

Our mission is to enhance the community's quality of life by providing women a wide range of recreational, and social activities that are both unifying and empowering.

The Inspirational Women (TIW) was established to provide members of the Greater Manchester community a chance to take part in a number of recreational activities. With great social activities for women, private gatherings, and educational programs — TIW has become the hub of women empowerment.

OUR MESSAGE

We have a passion for caring and supporting individuals with different challenges. And, we are great motivators, that want to see the best in people's lives. We have been involved with several bodies We work with De Butterfly CIC, to conduct weekly Zoom sessions, about the challenges women face in modern society.

Our organisation is called The Inspirational Women (TIW) - aimed at uplifting, empowering and inspiring women to stand out and make a difference. TIW aims to provide for the less fortunate, underprivileged and challenged woman.

How do we plan on doing this? TIW will strive to provide charitable donations, such as livelihood support. We would like to distribute necessities to those in need, provide mentorship, talk and share workshops, introduce different skill workshops and so forth. At the moment, we offer fortnightly Zoom sessions, where we share and discuss our experiences, mental well-being and struggles since the pandemic hit.

The Trustees have been delegated the day-to-day running of 'the Charity' to three of their Trustees. Major decisions are taken with consent and approval of all of the Trustees in accordance to the requirement of the constitution.

OBJECTIVES & ACTIVITIES:

To promote social inclusion for the public benefit by preventing people, predominantly but not exclusively in Manchester, from becoming socially excluded, relieving the needs of those people who are socially excluded and assisting them to integrate into society.

For the purpose of this clause 'socially excluded' means being excluded from society, or parts of society, as a result of one of more of the following factors: unemployment; financial hardship; youth or old age; ill health (physical or mental); substance abuse or dependency including alcohol and drugs; discrimination on the grounds of sex, race, disability, ethnic origin, religion, belief, creed, sexual orientation or gender re-assignment; poor educational or skills attainment; relationship and family breakdown; poor housing (that is housing that does not meet basic habitable standards; crime (either as a victim of crime or as an offender rehabilitating into society) or being a member of a socially or economically disadvantaged community.

In planning our activities for the year we kept in mind the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit at our trustee meetings. Our key activities involves:

- Design of personal development plans; and

- Programmes of young women orientated events and activities

These activities benefit young women by developing their self-confidence and social skills, their practical IT skills and life skills in providing opportunities for them to be inspired and empowered women across Manchester. INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

31ST DECEMBER 2025

This report is made to the Charity Trustees' on examination of its accounts for the year ended 31st December 2025, as presented in subsequent pages: 6 to 8.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF TRUSTEES & EXAMINER:

The charity' trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts as required under section 132 of the Charities Act 2011. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

BASIS OF INDEPENDENT EXAMINER:

Examination was carried out in accordance with general directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS STATEMENT:

In compliance with Section 145(2a) of the Charities Act 2011, at the election of the charity trustees, an independent examiner is expected to have the requisite ability and practical experience to carry out a competent examination of the accounts. I confirm that I possess the practical experience to carry out a competent examination of the accounts and as required examination by the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants, United Kingdom.

The examination of the company records is completed and no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
