All trustees are subject to an enhanced DBS check and are provided with a copy of the constitution and all policies.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

For the public benefit, the education, support and assistance of adults who have or suspect they may have attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) by raising public awareness, engaging with policy makers, providing coaching, support group meetings and psychoeducation for adults with ADHD, and training for healthcare professionals.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Production of evidence-based information on ADHD in adults for the general public to access via our charity website and social media.

The charity runs an online community, manned by volunteers, where service users can support one another and speak directly to volunteers.

The charity provides talks on ADHD at conferences and in Workplaces.

The charity produced a 'State of the Nation' survey, providing vital insights into the lived experiences of adults with ADHD in the UK.

Our Chairman contributed to helping to shape the findings of the NHS England Independent ADHD Taskforce Interim report.

We confirm that the trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has produced evidence-based information on ADHD in adults and made this available on our charity website and social media accounts.

The charity runs an online community, manned by volunteers, where service users can support one another and speak directly to volunteers. The server now supports over 6000 adults.

The charity has provided talks on ADHD at conferences and in workplaces and has provided evidence-based information to the media on numerous occasions.
