Earths Lonely Angels (ELA) operated as a Company limited by guarantee under Company number 11958744. Accordingly ELA filed accounts, confirmation statement and annual returns with companies house up to the period of 05/01/2023 under this basis. From the 06/01/2023 to the 01/05/2023 ELA operated as a charity regulated by the Charity Commission and this report covers that period.

ELA mainly works on a referral basis, whereby ELA has a network where referrals are made on an email or telephone basis by social workers on a 50% referral basis, and the remaining referrals are made by the Police, Early Intervention teams, NHS workers such as mental health nurses and occupation therapists (the "Referrer"). The Referrer provides the details of the person requiring assistance (the "Service User") and their requirements in respect of the assistance they need. ELA then provides the items/help/assistance requested.

Where ELA wins a grant the scope of referrers can be opened to include Doctors, Schools and other professionals. The main aim of the referral system is to ensure that all requests are genuine and that there is an audit trail.

ELA also has a number of policies and procedures in place to ensure the well being of both Service Users and volunteers, these include but are not limited to:

- Complaints procedure
- Code of Conduct
- Data Protection
- Safeguarding
- Volunteer management (Lone Working Policy)
- Incident Reporting Procedures
- Equal Opportunities

- Disciplinary Procedure

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

ELA relies on donations and fundraising and grants to carry out its objects. The main risk is therefore reduced donations and reduction in network related fundraising. ELA aims to ensure that funds never go below £1,000 and that continued events and networking is carried out to raise funds to ensure donations and fundraising does not reduce. ELA continues to work to widen and strengthen its network to further grow its fundraising and donations capacity.

Details of any funds materially in deficit
