Chabad of Finchley was registered independently with the Charity Commission as a CIO on 10 January 2022 under registration number 1197411. The constitution was last updated and modified in January 2022.

Objectives and Activities

The Charity is governed by a constitution and its objectives are:

- (a) The advancement the Jewish religion for the benefit of the public, including through communal prayers, lectures, and celebration of festivals.
- (b) Provision of education to adults and children in the heritage, culture and language of Judaism.
- (c) Provision of welfare and social support for Jewish people, especially those who are socially excluded.

The Charity plans to provide: Educational classes, clubs and lectures for adults and children

Festival celebrations

Half Term and school holiday provision for children

Prayer services

Support for the vulnerable.

The third edition of the code for charities was published in July 2017. The code lays out seven key areas of governance together with recommended practice for each principle. The Trustee have considered each principle to satisfy themselves that the Charity's current governance structure explained below satisfactorily addresses each of these principles and, where appropriate, what enhancements might be made.
