(No changes to trustees have been made)

Hope Community Immingham has continued working within the community of Immingham offering community outreach activities, events and fellowship opportunities to enhance the Christian Faith. Throughout 2024- 2025 we have held 5 events which were offered free of charge to participants Easter family movie event, Lent lunch, Summer party in the park event, Young people silent/disco/movie Christmas party night and a Christmas Puppet show. We have offered weekly arts and craft sessions, youth group sessions along with weekly church meetings and bible study sessions and a monthly prayer meeting. We also offer pastoral support for those who require this. On occasions practical support has been given to support difficulties being overcome.

We have 10 volunteers who help and support delivery of the activities events and sessions which are offered in a community building on a room hire basis. Our aim is to continue to offer encouragement and support in the way we have been doing as it is showing to be of great benefit to those involved with many positive outcomes..

Our Income is mainly from donations received by people who attend our weekly activities although these are offered free of charge many give a voluntary donation details of our outgoings are listed below showing a breakdown of costs for 2024-2025.
