Hope Community Immingham has continued working within the community of Immingham offering community outreach activities, events and fellowship opportunities to enhance the Christian Faith. Throughout 2023-2024 we have held 4 events which were offered free of charge to participants Easter family movie event, Lent lunch, Summer party in the park event and a Christmas Puppet show. We have offered weekly arts and craft sessions, youth group sessions along with weekly church meetings and bible study sessions and a monthly prayer meeting. We also offer pastoral support for those who require this.

We have 12 volunteers who help and support delivery of the activities events and sessions our aim is to continue to offer encouragement and support in the way we have been as it is showing to be of great benefit to those involved.

Our Income is mainly from donations received by people who attend our weekly activities although these are offered free of charge many give a voluntary donation details of our outgoings are listed below showing a breakdown of costs for 2023-2024.
