Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the Charity are.

(1) The prevention or relief of poverty, mainly among women and girls, by providing or assisting in the provision of education, training, healthcare projects and all the necessary support designed to enable individuals to generate a sustainable income and be self-sufficient.

(2) For the public benefit to promote the education of the young and the elderly in such ways as the charity trustees think fit, including by providing vocational, social and physical training and through the study of music or other arts.

 (3) The relief of unemployment for the public benefit in such ways as may be thought fit, including assistance to find employment.
 (4) To preserve and protect good health, especially in women, through education of the public on healthcare by the provision of lectures, forum and the publication of newsletters.

Talk Shows: Our charity hosts engaging talk shows that create a platform for open dialogue on important social issues. These discussions not only educate participants but also foster community connection and encourage a sense of belonging.

Food Bank: We operate a food bank that provides nutritious food and essentials to individuals and families in need. By addressing food insecurity, we aim to alleviate hunger and enhance the quality of life for those facing challenging circumstances.

Cooking: Our cooking programs offer hands-on classes that empower participants to develop culinary skills while promoting healthy eating habits. Through these sessions, individuals can learn to prepare affordable meals and gain confidence in their cooking abilities.

British History: We offer educational workshops focused on British history, allowing participants to explore and understand their heritage. By connecting individuals to their cultural roots, we aim to inspire a sense of identity and pride in the community.

Social Gatherings: Our social gatherings serve as a vibrant space for community members to come together, share experiences, and build lasting relationships. These events foster inclusivity and encourage a supportive network, enriching the lives of all who participate.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the past year, Women at the Well of Living Waters made significant strides in supporting homeless individuals in the community. The charity provided nutritious meals to hundreds of people in need, ensuring they had access to essential nourishment. Additionally, it successfully secured temporary shelter for numerous homeless individuals, offering them a safe space to rest and regroup. The organization also organized various events focused on empowerment, skill-building, and mental well-being, fostering a sense of community and hope among participants. Overall, their dedicated efforts have played a crucial role in improving the lives of those experiencing homelessness.

Section E

WOMAN AT THE WELL OF LIVING WATERS

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

FOR THE YEARENDED 31 JULY 2025

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparation of financial statements The financial statements have been prepared to give a 'true and fair' view and have departed from the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 only to the extent required to provide a 'true and fair' view. This departure has involved following the Charities SORP (FRS 102) published on 16 July 2014 rather than the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice effective from 1 April 2005 which has since been withdrawn. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention with items recognised at cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant notes to these accounts. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) issued on 16 July 2014 and Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and Charities Act 2011

FUNDS

General funds represent the funds of the W@LW that are not subject to any restrictions regarding their use and are available for application on the general purposes of the W@LW. Funds designated for a particular purpose by the W@LW are also unrestricted.

INCOMING RESOURCES

Voluntary Income and Capital Sources

Collections are recognized when received by or on behalf of the W@LW.

Planned giving receivable under covenant is recognised only when received.

Income tax recoverable on covenants or gift aid donations is included when the income is recognised.

Grants and legacies to the W@LW are accounted for as soon as the W@LW is notified of its legal entitlement and the amount due.

Funds raised by the KING'S CORONATION, BBQ, Village Show, Quiz Night and similar events are accounted for gross.

Other Ordinary Income

Rental income from the letting of the Charity premises is recognised when the rental is due.

Income from Investments

Dividends and interest are accounted for when received.

RESOURCES USED

Grants

Grants and donations are accounted for when paid over or when awarded.

Activities directly relating to the work of the Charity

The Diocesan quota is accounted for when payable. Any quota unpaid at the year-end is provided for in these accounts as an operational (though not a legal) liability and is shown as a creditor in the Balance Sheet.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 JULY 2025

2. FIXED ASSETS

Consecrated land and building sand moveable charity furnishings

Consecrated and benefice property is excluded from the accounts by section 10(2)(b) of the Charities Act 2011.

No value is placed on moveable church furnishing held by the churchwardens on special trust for the W@LW and which require a faculty for disposal since the W@LW considers this to be inalienable property. All expenditure incurred during the year on consecrated or benefice buildings and moveable church furnishings, whether maintenance or improvement, is written off as expenditure in the Accounts.
