Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Church Monuments Society

Year Ended 31 March 2025

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2025 which are set out on pages 1 to 9.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to the Financial Statements

1 Summary of significant accounting policies

(a) General information and basis of preparation

The receipts and payments account are prepared with regard to guidance issued by the Charities Commission 'Receipts and payments accounts CC16'

As explained in the 2024 trustees report the conversion to CIO took effect from 1 April 2023. The accounts have been prepared under merger accounting. The charity's work including its purposes and beneficiary class remain unchanged.

The statement of assets and liabilities have been presented as though they had always been part of the same (restructured) charity. The accounts have been drawn up to include the results of the combining (unincorporated and incorporated) charities for the whole of the reporting period in which incorporation occurred.

The accounts present comparative amounts on the same basis to show the aggregated results for the combining charities for the previous reporting period.

(b) Funds

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity and which have not been designated for other purposes.

Designated funds comprise unrestricted funds that have been set aside by the trustees for particular purposes. The aim and use of each designated fund is set out in the notes to the financial statements.

Restricted funds are funds which are to be used in accordance with specific restrictions imposed by donors or which have been raised by the charity for particular purposes. The cost of raising and administering such funds are charged against the specific fund. The aim and use of each restricted fund is set out in the notes to the financial statements.

2 Investments

Investments are stated at cost. The market value of the funds are;

Objectives and activities

The objective of the society is to promote the study, appreciation and conservation of church monuments in the United Kingdom and abroad according to the criteria provided by the charity's constitution.

Public benefit statement

In managing the charity and its activities the Trustees have considered the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission. The trustees consider that the objectives and activities of the charity and in accordance with the guidance issued by the Charity Commission.

Strategic Report

Achievements and performance

During the year the charity undertook the following events;

1. A series on line lectures.
2. A study day In Leicester devoted to monuments of the Wars of the Roses.
3. A visit to churches in North Leicestershire and South Nottinghamshire focussing on alabaster monuments in that area.
4. Walking tour of London cemeteries.

The charity continued to publish the widely respected Journal. The trustees would like to record their thanks to :

Peter McGrath of Henry Ling Limited who has assisted with the typesetting and printing The Journal for many years.

Doctor Ann Adams who has recently stood down after editing the Journal for many years.

The charity continued to act as an advocate for the conservation and protection of church monuments.

Conversion to Charitable Incorporated Organisation ("CIO")

The conversion to CIO status having been approved by members the CIO took over the activities of the charity with effect from 1 April 2023.

Financial review

The net assets of the predecessor charity were transferred to the current charity with effect from 1 April 2023.

Income for the year was £20,264 which was a reduction of £4,240 on the previous year. This in turn was because income for 2023 included £4,115 in relation to the symposium which took place in September 2022.

Church Monuments Society

Trustees' Annual Report

Expenditure amounted to £20,364 a reduction of £10,599. This is due to the fact that the 2023 figures included symposium costs of £10,577. Significantly more than 50% of the charity's costs are in respect of the production and distribution of its publications.

The net assets of the charity at 31 March 2024 were almost identical to the position at the previous year end, with total assets of £73,807, compared with £73,547 the previous year.

Of the total assets, £58,807 (2023: £58,547) was represented by the general unrestricted fund and £15,000 by restricted funds.

Plans for future periods

The trustees intend to continue to work to further the objectives of the charity in respect of:

- Promoting the understanding and appreciation of funerary monuments
- Promoting the conservation and protection of monuments especially those under threat

Structure, governance and management

Church Monuments Society is registered as charity with the Charity Commission, under Number 1197588. The charity is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation formed in January 2022.

Conversion to Charitable Incorporated Organisation ("CIO").

The conversion to CIO status having been approved by members, the CIO (Church Monuments Society, reg no. 1197588), took over the activities of The Church Monuments Society (reg no. 279597) with effect from 1 April 2023. Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Church Monuments Society

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2024 which are set out on pages 1 to 9.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- 1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
- 2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
