These animals are also vaccinated against rabies, resulting in a safer place for the public. Birth control also prevents the area being overpopulated with unwanted animals, often leading to residents complaining or harming the animals. This also forms a basis for our educational material for our online YouTube channel by filming real life footage, edited, and released into the public domain. Goa Dog Foundation now has an educational programme in place that is delivered by us and on-line content for others wanting to deliver the programme. This is also available on TES educational resources for schools. Prepared and developed educational material for online purposes and face-to-face programmes in India and in the UK/international. The idea of these programmes is to educate the public on multi aspects of animal welfare in a number of different languages. Made links with veterinary professionals for their support on creating current educational videos for our socials. Communicated with many schools in both India and the UK to share the news about our new educational programme and on-line resources. Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

- Logo's complete/artwork finalised for the organisation.
- Constructed a safe place for dogs/cats at the trustee's home in India. This consists of 5 zones that can house approximately 20 dogs. Each zone has a small shelter area with a roof and beds to protect them from the sun/rain (based at Trustee's new home in Goa).
- Collected many hours of video footage of our work which will be used for educational material for on-line (YouTube) and school visits.
- Initial educational material complete.
- Video available on the organisation. How it started and what we do.
- Our feeding programme has grown in India, and we continue to operate this throughout North Goa.
- Spay/Neutering of 8 dogs and 2 cats.
- Coordinated adoption homes for 7 dogs and 3 cats.
- Fundraising events
- Social media platforms completed and YouTube channel complete.
- Rescued a horse in the UK from being euthanised unnecessarily. We now receive small regular donations towards the horses' upkeep and the horse is now living a happy retired life.

Future Planning Continues:

- We continue to search for land to rent in the UK for animals in need (not limited to dogs).
- Plans complete to develop an office space next to the trustees' home in the UK (at no cost to the organisation).
- Coordinating a volunteering programme to participate in a project in India to assist with our work.
- Share our educational work with others to grow our audience and educate the public.
- Find more volunteers to participate in fundraising.
