Chairs Report on 2024

2024 was a quieter year for the charity.

The Asylum seeker hotels near to us having closed, most of those housed in Luton are now a further distance away in the town centre. The overall numbers in Luton had gone down due to many having been dispersed to other areas of the country or leaving following gaining their right to remain. As our numbers were significantly reduced we made the decision to stop our weekly drop in's that included clothing distribution and social support. We first went down to one day a week then ceased the sessions from October. Weekly or twice weekly sessions had been running with minimal breaks since May 2020. The distributions that we did make during the first part of the year were more closely monitored with the use of google sheets where the taking of identity numbers prevented the exploitation of the system. We continue to offer some support to a number of those seeking Asylum and those with permission to stay. This has usually involved some level of advocacy or accompanying on visits to health services or Home Office appointments.

As concern remained about the colder weather at the end of the year we hosted a collection of winter coats during the 2024/5 winter. Large numbers of these came from a collection arranged by Luton Someries Round Table. We also made an arrangement to give "Shozone" vouchers to those who needed new footwear. A timed distribution was organised to get these and the coats to those who needed them. We worked in partnership with staff from Luton Borough Council and other agencies to make sure everyone had the basics they needed to stay warm and dry. In the end the demand proved to be much less than we had forecast leaving us with stock for the winter of 2025.

Clothing donations from other individuals and groups continued through the year but we found ourselves having to dispose of a large amounts of unwanted stock. Several bulk buys of underwear, joggers and T shirts took place in the first part of the year and we ended 2024 with a good supply of items that other agencies in the town can access if needed.

We are grateful to all the volunteers who in different ways have supported this work since 2020. A final gathering and lunch was held for them in October. The Latter-Day Saints Church continued their support in the first part of the year - a "trolley dash" resulted in a large donation of toiletries. We also continued to benefit Harpenden Hygiene donations.

During 2024 presentations on our work were made at Luton Someries and the Diocese of St Albans conference. We were formally recognised as members of Luton City of Sanctuary which is now taking more active role in the town. We took part in a refugee week event organised in June by our partners from across the town

We have supported Asylum seekers of all faiths and none. As we scaled back our drop in, Hope Church based in the centre of Luton began a weekly global café which has taken on the role of providing social and emotional support. We have continued to work closely with our colleagues there.

The words of the 2023 report bear repeating

Bonds have been quickly formed, and the repeated “goodbyes and good luck” have at times felt like tiny multiple bereavements. If we are remembered as being the side of Britain that showed kindness – then I think that is no small contribution to what I hope will be a new and productive life in this country that benefits all of us.

Chairs Report on 2023

2023 was the busiest year so far for our charity. The Twice weekly drop-in ran on all but about 4 weeks of the year. The exact numbers we have supported directly or indirectly is not easy to determine. We know in 2022 we made donations of clothing and toiletries over 500 times and I'm sure this was not much different in 2022.

At this AGM I want to pay a special tribute to our faithful volunteers. With the minimum of red tape, we have involved a wide variety of helpers including those who were themselves Asylum seekers to help sort and distribute clothing, make refreshments, entertain children and offer a kind word of welcome to those who walk through the door. Throughout the year there was a remarkable unity of spirit in the volunteering with everyone finding their niche and doing whatever needed to be done.

Donations of pre used clothing came in from a wide variety of sources along with financial gifts. Bulk buys of underwear, joggers and T shirts, often totalling around £1000 a delivery were brought in from the best value suppliers we could find. At the Drop in we had Craft activities for children and adults, Informal conversational English and benefitted from help in maintaining our gardens and buildings. We celebrated the Persian New Year festival "Norwuz" with the traditional meal and festivities.

Outside the drop in there was Football skills training with Luton Town Community Trust and our team won the cup competition in Bedford. A group came to watch the mighty hatters lose a preseason friendly but I'm afraid we were not able to get first team match tickets. We had visits from our MPs, a Sunday Times journalist researching a story about child migrants, and our Bishop. Even the Papal Nuncio met with a group of those we had been supporting during his visit to Luton.

In the winter of 2023, we joined others in an effort to provide Winter clothing. Coats came via local Round Table groups, and we worked in partnership with staff from Luton Borough Council and other agencies to make sure everyone had the basics they needed to stay warm and dry. At its peak Luton was hosting over 1300 people across 5 hotels and hundreds more in self-catering accommodation.

Through the rest of the year we received donations from a variety of sources. Toiletries came from Harpenden Hygiene. Suitcases came from Luton Airport. SIM cards were obtained from Vodaphone. Luton Foodbank provided kettle packs of food that could be made up with hot water. These were distributed for families with children who could not stomach the hotel food. In the first part of the year, we matched people up with bicycles from the Luton Borough Councils scheme to restore abandoned cycles. The biggest donation of 2023 came from an unexpected source. The Latter Day Saints (formerly known as the Mormons) provided £15,000 worth of donations comprising essential wear, Primark vouchers, toiletries and some board games.

Many of those we have supported have needed a lot more than just clothing. Debbie, Susan and others provided advocacy support which involved giving advice and helping to arrange appointments that the hotel welfare staff should really have been taking the initiative on. The pressure of supporting people with complex cases meant they both stepped back from the drop in during the year but all those volunteering have sought to signpost and support individuals and families to get access to the services they were entitled to.

During the year we undertook some safeguarding training that was developed with the needs of Asylum seeker support in mind. About 12 of our volunteers undertook this in-person training that had been developed by Courtney Cuffy from Bedfordshire Care4Calais. We had several conversations about safeguarding and safety of volunteers and Asylum seekers at our drop in and remained alert to possible issues and disclosures. Where needed, we liaised with Clearsprings, the company then overseeing the Chiltern and Skyline hotels and with the Luton Borough Council Safeguarding team. Two cases were escalated during the year and individuals were moved to alternative accommodation as a result.

We have supported Asylum seekers of all faiths and none. At Easter 2023 we had 23 baptisms with a further 8 later in the year. The Diocese hosted an Iranian meal for over 80 Persian Christians the following day on Easter Monday. Around a year later there was an outcry that the church was helping people “game the system” and we were quoted in the national press. Our view was and is that while there may be one or two who were not genuine, the vast majority wanted to publicly profess their Christian faith which they had in Iran or for a few, that they had embraced here. Again and again the freedom to believe was mentioned as one of the most powerful factors in their new lived here.

The most powerful and simplest impact of the work has been that Asylum seekers have had the experience of being treated kindly. In a bureaucratic system that has been hostile and in the hotels that have not been much better, Asylum seekers have been further demonised after difficult and dangerous journeys to get here often fleeing from danger in their own countries. We know that so many have left loved ones with the hope of one day being reunited.

As I write this report, the faces and names of some of those that have passed through the building come to mind. Bonds have been quickly formed and the repeated “goodbyes and good luck” have at times felt like tiny multiple bereavements. If we are remembered as being the side of Britain that showed kindness – then I think that is no small contribution to what I hope will be a new and productive life in this country that benefits all of us.

All Saints Luton Refugee and Asylum Seeker Support Project

Independent examiners report to the trustees of
All Saints Luton Refugee and Asylum Seeker Support Project

Charity Registration No. 1197642

I report on the accounts for the period ended 31st December 2023, which are set out on pages 3 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this period under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity's gross income exceeded £25,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW).

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006 and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

1. Providing facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation in the interests of social welfares with the object of improving their conditions of life; and
2. The Relief of financial hardship through the provision of essential goods and support as the trustees deem appropriate, which they would otherwise not be able to afford.

The Drop in

Our drop in ran for two hourly sessions twice a week throughout the year and provided the main focus for this work.

Each week we provided subject to availability

- Distribution of essential clothing items for those with without this
- Toiletries
- Occasionally items for babies and young children and mothers
- Social space for drink, refreshment and conversation. Toys and creative play for children. Informal ESOL sessions.

A team of 12-15 volunteers drawn from a wide variety of backgrounds have supported this work along with around 6 of the trusted Asylum seekers who have helped with practical aspects of running the drop in. The work would not run without their commitment.

The items distributed have come from a combination of donations and the bulk purchases or core items such as underwear, T Shirts, Hoodies.

In 2022, there were 1399 requests for items. 395 of these were for shoes and the remainder spread between T shirts, Underwear, Joggers, Hoodies, jackets. Our records show we were able to meet 93.5% of the items requested.

We also offered

Over 30 monthly Gym membership passes,

Over 30 Recycled bikes courtesy of Luton Borough council

Problems with monitoring the use of these and the theft of many bikes resulted in us ceasing to offer both of these towards the end of the year.

Independent examiners report to the trustees of
All Saints Luton Refugee and Asylum Seeker Support Project

Charity Registration No. 1197642

I report on the accounts for the period ended 31st December 2022, which are set out on pages 3 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this period under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity's gross income exceeded £25,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW).

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006 and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
