nmend we review the need for a website at this cost - we should

We at Arise and Awake Jagruti Association UK (AAJA) are immensely proud that with the help of our Indian counterparts, Arise and Awake Rohit Samaj Jagruti Trust, India (AARSJT), we have accomplished various projects this last financial year which have been of immense benefit to the poor.

The support we offer is of the highest quality: this is selfless service on the part of AARSJT and we are indebted to them.

We have assisted in rebuilding the lives of the poor in villages in India.

Our biggest project saw us rebuild a lady's house which was demolished in flash floods; we have given out food and household items parcel in several villages during the occasion of Diwali (Festival of Lights): a Hindu tradition that celebrates good over evil.

We also printed our first ever Magazine in November 2023 (Diwali Edition) which has captured the true essence of the tremendous work done by AARSJT. We are immensely proud of this sterling effort by them.

We also organised a sports tournament for those from poor back grounds: again highlighting how important it is to get the young and vulnerable to take part in activities that would benefit them in the long term.

We have very generous donors in the UK and abroad and together with income generated from membership fees, we have at our disposal a substantial amount of funds that has been and will be used in future to support, in every way, our brethren in India who struggle both financially and sometimes mentally as well.
