Trustee selection methods
(eg appointed by, elected by)Appointment of Charity Trustees

a) Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.

In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge, and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Additional governance issues (optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
 - relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Islamic religion in the United Kingdom and throughout the world for the benefit of those who are following or learning about the Islamic religion, through arranging seminars and lectures, and producing and distributing authentic literature on the teachings of Islam to enlighten others and help them to follow these teachings.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- Arranges seminars and lectures on Islamic teachings
- Provides charitable donations to individuals for zakat purposes
- Provides charitable donations to those in need

Charity Commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on a going-concern basis, unless there is reason to believe that the charity will not continue in operation for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose, with reasonable accuracy, the financial position of the charity at any time and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and, therefore, for taking reasonable steps to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

Additional details of objectives and activities (optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

This year saw an increase in the number of weekly and monthly lectures, with a greater focus on supporting those in need within the community by raising donations to help the less fortunate. Over 300 people who were financially impacted received support. Additionally, many students were able to access courses free of charge on a weekly basis.

Section EFinancial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity maintains unrestricted funds which equates to at least approximately three months unrestricted expenditure. This provides sufficient funds to cover management, administration and support cost. The reserves policy is assessed and monitored on a yearly basis to ascertain its suitability for the charity

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect,:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently;
 - Make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
 - Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the charity will not continue for the foreseeable future.

Fountain Education

Receipts and Payments Accounts for the period 7th March 2022 to 31st March 2023

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity was able to raise funds for their charitable activities. During the year they held lectures and seminars on Islamic teachings and provided charitable donations.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity maintains unrestricted funds which equates to at least approximately three months unrestricted expenditure. This provides sufficient funds to cover management, administration and support cost.

The reserves policy is assessed and monitored on a yearly basis to ascertain its suitability for the charity

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
