Trustee selection methods
(eg. appointed by, elected by)

- a) Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.
- b) In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The object of the CIO is:

- A. The prevention or relief of poverty in the UK and overseas, especially Pakistan by providing grants, items and services to individuals in need and charities, or other organisations working to prevent or relieve poverty including grants to underprivileged young people to enable them to participate in educational studies including Islamic education.

Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the CIO for the purposes which are not charitable in accordance with [section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005] and [section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008].

Purchased and distributed books for the purpose of furthering education, provided jobs, provided employees to mosques and madressas that can't afford ones and provided wages to the employees.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Charity Commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently;
- Make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the CIO will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the organisation and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has been able to raise funds during the year which they have used towards their charitable activities.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity does not have a policy in place as it just started.

Section F Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.
