- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Landlark is a small, relatively new, Charitable Incorporated Organisation and at this time has three trustees with one of these, Beth Warmington, (also it's Founder) acting as the main operational lead. Trustees receive monthly updates about Landlark's completed and upcoming activities.

Landlark is a member of Cambridge Council for Voluntary Services and National Council for Voluntary Services and makes good use of the training provided through this membership. Training undertaken by Beth Warmington and disseminated to the other trustees include:

- Essential skills for trustees
- An introduction to child and adult safeguarding
- Finding funding
- Preparing successful grant applications

Landlark currently has a partnership with the domestic abuse arts charity Tender (Registered Charity Number: 1100214) to fund and deliver a Healthy Relationship programme with schools across the local area of Cambridgeshire. In 2022 we delivered projects with a local secondary and primary school and we are planning on commissioning and delivering a further eight two-day Healthy Relationship workshops in primary and secondary schools in the area.

In addition, Landlark Founder and Trustee Beth Warmington works on making connections and partnerships with other key organisations in the area and further afield in order to increase awareness of key issues around domestic abuse, sexual violence and more. These include but are not limited to:

- Cambridge Women's Aid
- University of Cambridge's Harassment and Violence Support Service
- Domestic Abuse Education
- City of London Police (their OpReframe initiative which helps keep women safe in the City of London at night)
- Tender
- Cambridgeshire and Peterborough's Domestic Abuse and Sexual Violence Partnership (Landlark is a member of this Partnership's Children and Young People Healthy Relationships Group)

Whilst all trustees understand the importance of safeguarding issues, the charity does not have a safeguarding policy officially in place yet as the work of the charity does not currently require its team to work directly with children and/or vulnerable adults. There is a draft policy in place which will hopefully be added to the charity's entry on the register.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Landlark exists to work towards the eradication of domestic abuse, sexual violence and all forms of harassment. It advances for the public benefit (in the UK) the education of the public about domestic abuse, sexual violence and gender based violence perpetrated primarily against women and girls, in particular, but not exclusively by commissioning third party training providers to undertake education and training in schools, workplaces and other settings.

Increasing awareness for the public of the issues around domestic abuse, sexual violence and all forms of gender based violence perpetrated primarily against women and girls.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Landlark's main activities are as stated above, identifying local schools; both primary and secondary and funding workshops which are delivered by their training partner, the charity Tender. These workshops equip young people with the tools to recognise relationships which have the potential to become abusive, coercive or controlling and help educate young people on the attributes of healthy and unhealthy relationships thereby breaking cycles of abuse and increasing awareness of the issues around domestic abuse, sexual violence and harassment.

In the establishment of Landlark and in creating its Charitable Objects and in the day to day running of Landlark, trustees are aware of the guidance around what constitutes 'public benefit' issued by the Charity Commission in various documents including PB1 and CC3. Our charitable objects statement is at the heart of all our activities and decision making

Section D

Achievements and performance

Landlark's main achievements within the reporting period of this annual return are:

- the establishment of a partnership with a training and education partner
- relationships established with local schools, charities, businesses, the local MP and local councillors, local Young People IDVAs, the county's domestic abuse and sexual violence partnership and others

- two day Healthy Relationship workshop with a Year 6 cohort (30 students) funded and delivered in December 2022 at University of Cambridge Primary School

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Landlark's trustee George Walker has established a salary sacrifice scheme through his employer which ensures that Landlark is receiving £1000 per calendar month for the charity to function and ensure that it is able to continue to run and invest in education for young people.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:
