- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Landlark is a small, Charitable Incorporated Organisation and at this time has three trustees with one of these, Beth Warmington, (also it's Founder) acting as the main operational lead.

Landlark is a member of Cambridge Council for Voluntary Services and National Council for Voluntary Services.

Landlark continues to work with key organisations in the local area including but not limited to Cambridge Women's Aid, Cambridgeshire and Peterborough's Domestic Abuse and Sexual Violence Partnership, Cambridge United Foundation and Cambridge Student's Union.

Whilst all trustees understand the importance of safeguarding issues, the charity does not have a safeguarding policy officially in place yet as the work of the charity does not currently require its team to work directly with children and/or vulnerable adults. There is a draft policy in place which will hopefully be added to the charity's entry on the register.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Landlark exists to work towards the eradication of domestic abuse, sexual violence and all forms of harassment. It advances for the public benefit (in the UK) the education of the public about domestic abuse, sexual violence and gender based violence perpetrated primarily against women and girls, in particular, but not exclusively by commissioning third party training providers to undertake education and training in schools, workplaces and other settings.

Increasing awareness for the public of the issues around domestic abuse, sexual violence and all forms of gender based violence perpetrated primarily against women and girls.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Landlark's main activities for the accounting period to which this report pertains to:

Funding and enabling of healthy relationship workshops in seven local schools, all facilitated by the domestic abuse prevention charity Tender.

- Ridgefield Primary School - a Year 6 cohort of 32 pupils - two-day Healthy Friendships workshop
- University of Cambridge Primary School - Year 6 - each of the three forms in the year had a one day Healthy Friendships workshop - 90 pupils
- Milton Road Primary School - 55 pupils in Year 5 received a two day Healthy Friendship workshop
- Cambourne Village College (secondary) - 27 pupils in Year 8 undertook a two-day Healthy Relationships workshop
- Comberton Village College (secondary) - 29 pupils in Year 9 undertook a two-day Healthy Relationships workshop
- Oakes College (sixth form) - 31 students in Year 12 participated in enrichment sessions
- Oakes College - 11 students from Year 13's Sixth Form Council participated in a Healthy Relationships workshop, the findings from which they fed back to the entire sixth form which was attended by Landlark Founder Beth Warmington
- Chesterton Community College (secondary) - 22 pupils received a one day Healthy Relationship workshop

In the establishment of Landlark and in creating its Charitable Objects and in the day to day running of Landlark, trustees are aware of the guidance around what constitutes 'public benefit' issued by the Charity Commission in various documents including PB1 and CC3. Our charitable objects statement is at the heart of all our activities and decision making

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Landlark's main achievements within the reporting period of this annual return are:

- Funded workshops in seven Cambridgeshire secondary and primary school settings reaching 297 young people between the ages of 9 to 18 years old.

As part of Landlark's objective to increase public awareness the following activities also took place:

- Charity Lead met with young people from Cambourne Village College who had established themselves as Healthy Relationship Ambassadors in their school
- Charity Lead received an award in London for their contribution and commitment to making Healthy Relationship education happen in the local area
- Charity Lead spoke at an event run by Cambridge University Student Union on tackling violence against women and girls
- Charity Lead was guest speaker on panel about the role of education in tackling violence against women and girls at Cambridge City Council's Domestic Abuse Conference

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Landlark's trustee George Walker has established a salary sacrifice scheme through his employer which ensures that Landlark is receiving £1000 per calendar month for the charity to function and ensure that it is able to continue to run and invest in education for young people.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
