The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2025. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

As set out in the charity's constitution, the objects of the charity are:

- To preserve and protect the good mental health of, in particular but not exclusively, children and young persons in Bolton and the surrounding areas for the public benefit through, in particular but not exclusively:
  - a) the education of life skills; and
  - b) providing a listening service for children aged 9-12 years.
- To advance the Christian Religion in Bolton and the surrounding areas for the public benefit through, in particular but not exclusively:
  - a) educating children and young people, in particular but not exclusively, aged 4-18 years, on the principles and values of the Christian faith; and
  - b) through the promotion of activities and events by other Christian based charities.

Public benefit

The charity's main activities are described in the sections below. The board of trustees is satisfied with the performance of the charity during the year and in planning the activities the trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

The financial year of 2024-25 has been one of continued growth for Kings Community, with our work expanding in all areas, which has further advanced our vision to positively impact the mental, physical and spiritual wellbeing of children, teenagers and adults at risk, through practically demonstrating God's love to them.

In 2024/25, Kings Community provided 1,274 one-to-one listening ear sessions for 104 different children aged between 8 and 15 years old. This equates to 862 hours-worth of sessions across schools in Little Lever and the surrounding areas of East Bolton. We have also been able to provide 6 hours of large group relationship and wellbeing sessions for 30 Primary School-aged children and have worked in partnership with other charities to provide over 100 food hampers to households in need.

These numbers vary from the previous year of 2023/24, where our listening services increased from previously providing 1120 hours of listening sessions for 127 different children, but our creative arts sessions have decreased from previously providing 60 hours to 40 children. The reason for this is that the increased decline in children's mental health has led to schools prioritising individual interventions as opposed to group preventions.

We have continued working in Ladywood Special School, providing listening services and creative arts sessions for SEND children and have seen significant growth in the children's emotional wellbeing and self-awareness.

Thanks to the second grant of £6,500 from CRH, we are able to continue our work in Little Lever High School and are now providing 9 listening sessions per week due to training volunteers to take on additional sessions. High School Listening Sessions were initially to address the exacerbation of poor mental health in children when transitioning schools, however the service is now being offered to pupils in years 8-11 as a response to the increased decline in young people's mental health.

Outcomes in 2024-25

We measure the progress of our work with each individual through certain metrics including improved self-esteem, confidence, an understanding and implementation of coping strategies where necessary and the feedback of class teachers.

We have found that the Listening Ear project and the Creative Arts sessions are having a positive effect on children and teenagers in Little Lever and East Bolton. 96% of children have found the sessions beneficial, 73% stated their mental health had improved by the end of the sessions and 59% required no further interventions once the sessions had finished. General comments made by the children are that they enjoy the sessions, they feel safe to talk about the things that are worrying them, they find it helpful to receive some coping strategies for when they are feeling very worried or upset and that they enjoy having someone to talk to.

We regularly liaise with staff about the progress of the children that we are working with. This feedback is essential in guiding the direction of the sessions so that we are able to adapt to each child's individual needs. The feedback that we receive is often very positive, mentioning an increase in confidence, an improvement in school attendance, behaviour or an observation of a child tackling a more specific problem or worry with more confidence.

Child A was referred to the Listening Service because they were struggling to engage with the class and was suffering severe emotional outbursts on a regular basis. After working with staff to implement a strategy of providing long-term listening sessions as a safe space to self-regulate and then gradually introducing peers into the sessions, to learn to play together, the child has now built strong friendships in his class and has significantly reduced his emotional outbursts to the point that they are not deemed a concern.

The teacher has noticed the positive impact this has had on the whole of the class and has now put forward other class members to go through the Listening Sessions for the class to grow further.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

The charity is continuing to build its financial platform to expand its work and reach. Currently, the main ongoing fixed costs are the salaries of its staff. The charity is looking to secure new funding to increase the number of staff to allow it to expand its work in the community and local schools.

Principal funding sources

The charity is dependent on the generosity of individual supporters and grant funders to support its work in the community.

During the year, income has been boosted by the following:

Albert Hunt Trust (Listening and arts)	£4,000
Benefact Trust (Listening and arts)	£2,700
CRH Charitable Trust (Listening service)	£6,500
Groundwork/Tesco Stronger Starts	£500
Joseph Rank Trust (Core costs)	£10,000

The charity has also been able to generate income by charging schools to deliver listening and art sessions. The rates are subsidised by the charity to accommodate the constraints of the budgets of the local schools whilst providing a much needed service for children.

Reserves policy

The trustees have considered the level of reserves they wish to retain are appropriate to the charity's needs. The trustees aim to hold unrestricted reserves equivalent to three month's regular expenditure (excluding projects) as a minimum (i.e. £7,987 as at the end of this financial year) to cover any unforeseen costs that may arise.

The trustees have designated funds for a new staff member that is due to be hired in the 2025/26 financial year. In this relatively early stage of the charity, the trustees believe it is appropriate to designate such funds to reduce financial risk.

FUTURE PLANS

Due to the increased demand from current schools, we have recruited and trained volunteers to take on lower priority cases so that officers can focus on high priority ones. This recruitment process has consisted of identifying potential volunteers, enrolling them on the relevant counselling courses, providing training and guidance over King's Community protocol and then introducing them to a school that we are currently working in.

We currently have 4 volunteers who come into 4 Primary Schools and the High School each week. After spending time shadowing officers during listening sessions with children and then providing supervised sessions, they have independently provided 235 sessions over the past year. We aim to recruit a volunteer to shadow officers within each school so that we can strategically prioritise cases and increase capacity within each school, thus increasing our current outputs and outcomes.

We are now seeing current partner schools request more small group therapy sessions as a preventative measure for children's mental health and to also improve relationships and dynamics within classes. We have therefore created a specific 6 week arts therapy session as well as class dynamics 6-week course for large groups, which was piloted in a school and has been requested by other partner schools.

We have also started work in another local school, however this now means we have reached capacity even with volunteers. With the demand for more work from our partner schools and new schools reaching out to work in partnership with them, we are advertising for a part-time officer to provide more sessions and look at potential future opportunities. We are also scoping the possibility of creating another part time post to further increase our capacity to potentially 60 sessions per week. We are currently liaising with schools and in the process of applying for funding to external partners in order to finance this new role.

Report of the Trustees for the Year Ended 31 March 2024

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2024. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

As set out in the charity's constitution, the objects of the charity are:

- To preserve and protect the good mental health of, in particular but not exclusively, children and young persons in Bolton and the surrounding areas for the public benefit through, in particular but not exclusively:
  - a) the education of life skills; and
  - b) providing a listening service for children aged 9-12 years.

- To advance the Christian Religion in Bolton and the surrounding areas for the public benefit through, in particular but not exclusively:
  - a) educating children and young people, in particular but not exclusively, aged 4-18 years, on the principles and values of the Christian faith; and
  - b) through the promotion of activities and events by other Christian based charities.

Public benefit

The charity's main activities are described in the sections below. The board of trustees is satisfied with the performance of the charity during the year and in planning the activities the trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

The financial year of 2023-24 has been one of real growth for Kings Community, with our work expanding in all areas, which has further advanced our vision to positively impact the mental, physical and spiritual wellbeing of children, teenagers and adults at risk, through practically demonstrating God's love to them.

In 2023/24, Kings Community provided 1,120 one-to-one listening ear sessions for 104 different children aged between 8 and 15 years old. This equates to 840 hours-worth of sessions across schools in Little Lever and the surrounding areas of East Bolton. We have also been able to provide 90 hours of small group creative arts wellbeing sessions for 55 Primary School-aged children and 40 hours of wellbeing coffee mornings for parents within the schools.

These numbers are a significant growth from the previous year of 2022/23, where we provided 276 hours of listening sessions to 24 different children and 60 hours of group creative arts sessions to 40 children. The reason for this growth has been due to numerous reasons:

- The employment of another full-time officer in February 2023 gave us the capacity to increase our service, resulting in us providing new listening sessions in St Saviour, Red Lane and St Teresa Primary Schools, whilst still continuing in Masefield and Bowness Primary Schools.

Charitable activities – continued

- We have started working in Ladywood Special School, providing listening services and creative arts sessions for SEND children.
- Thanks to the grant of £6,500 from CRH, we are now providing 6 listening sessions per week in Little Lever High School. This was initially to address the exacerbation of poor mental health in children when transitioning from Primary to High School. The school, however, have found the service so beneficial that it has now also been offered to Year 8 and 9 pupils, with us training volunteers so we can increase to providing 9 sessions per week.

Outcomes in 2023-2024

We measure the progress of our work with each individual through certain metrics including improved self-esteem, confidence, an understanding and implementation of coping strategies where necessary and the feedback of class teachers.

We have found that the Listening Ear project and the Creative Arts sessions are having a positive effect on children and teenagers in Little Lever and East Bolton. Children mention that they enjoy the sessions, they feel safe to talk about the things that are worrying them, they find it helpful to receive some coping strategies for when they are feeling very worried or upset and that they enjoy having someone to talk to.

We regularly liaise with staff about the progress of the children that we are working with. This feedback is essential in guiding the direction of the sessions so that we are able to adapt to each child's individual needs. The feedback that we receive is often very positive, mentioning an increase in confidence, an improvement in behaviour or an observation of a child tackling a more specific problem or worry with more confidence.

Child A was referred to the Listening Service because they were struggling with low confidence and it was beginning to affect them academically as they were too shy to ask for help when they were struggling. After spending 6 weeks looking at what they were afraid of, the reasons for their worries and working on building their confidence with Rachel, the teacher reported back that Child A now seems much happier in class. They are asking questions, offering answers to questions and are generally much happier and much more confident.

The teacher also reported that this has had a positive impact on the rest of the class, with the confidence of the class increasing, as well as their willingness to ask for help when they are struggling.

Financial position

The charity is in the process of developing a stable financial platform to expand its work and reach. Currently, the main ongoing fixed costs are the salaries of its staff. The charity is looking to secure new funding to increase staff hours to allow it to expand its work in the community and local schools.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

The charity is dependent on the generosity of individual supporters as well as grant income to support its work in the community.

During the year, income has been boosted by the following:

Benefact Trust (Listening and arts)	£2,000
CRH Charitable Trust (Listening service)	£6,500
Bolton CVS (School song project)	£5,000
Trusthouse CF (Listening service)	£2,000
Bolton CVS (Listening service)	£5,000
Garfield Weston Foundation (Listening and arts)	£5,000

The charity has also been able to generate income by charging schools to deliver listening and art sessions. The rates are subsidised by the charity to accommodate the constraints of the budgets of the local schools whilst providing a much needed service for children.

Reserves policy

The trustees' have considered the level of reserves they wish to retain are appropriate to the charity's needs. The trustees' aim to hold unrestricted reserves equivalent to three month's regular expenditure (excluding projects) as a minimum (i.e. £5,600 as at the end of this financial year).

FUTURE PLANS

Due to the increased demand from current schools, we are now recruiting and training volunteers to take on lower priority cases so that officers can focus on high priority ones. This recruitment process has consisted of identifying potential volunteers, enrolling them on the relevant counselling courses, providing training and guidance over King's Community protocol and then introducing them to a school that we are currently working in.

We currently have 4 volunteers who come into 3 Primary Schools and the High School each week. They have spent the first term shadowing officers during listening sessions with children and slowly taking greater responsibility throughout later sessions. We are now at the stage where some volunteers can independently take some low priority cases, which will increase capacity within schools and also help officer focus on the most urgent ones. Our overall aim is to have a volunteer shadow officers within each school so that we can strategically prioritise cases and increase capacity within each school, thus increasing our current outputs and outcomes.

Additionally, some of our current partner schools are now experiencing difficulties with groups within their classes and have asked us to provide a group project that will help improve class empathy and self-awareness. We have adapted our creative arts project for a larger setting and have recruited an external partner to help run this project with our officers. This project will be used as a pilot which we hope to offer to other schools, once completed.

New schools have also reached out to us to work in partnership with them, however we currently don't have the resource and capacity. Therefore, our main aim in the short-term future is to recruit a full-time officer who will have responsibility for working in new schools, further increasing weekly outputs and outcomes. We are currently in the process of applying for funding to external partners in order to finance this new role.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the CIO as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
