Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the year we staged a very successful production of Calamity Jane. The show has been nominated for a NODA award. The cast also visited local care homes and we were pleased to welcome a dozen residents and cares to the matinee show. In the membership and cast there are a number of neurodiverse individuals including those on the autistic spectrum and with behavioural issues. We maintain a very inclusive and open approach to membership and welcome participation from any and all individuals who wish to join the society. We continue to collaborate closely with Sutton Town Hall, building up community relationships in a challenging environment for local amenities.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The Society continues to manage its finances responsibly. The show Calamity Jane had slightly disappointing ticket sales but largely met its costs. We were also able to secure a Theatre Tax credit payment of £8,366.40, unfortunately not until the end of the year due to changes in HMRC procedures. By keeping close track of costs and managing finances we are proud to have kept membership and show fees at the same level, once again offering payment plans for show fees to make the Society accessible to all.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The reserves are twofold: to alleviate cash flow issues (costs up front, ticket sales post show) and to keep the Society viable for long term planning given the precarious nature of putting on shows. We have used current reserves to secure our next shows in 2025 and 2026.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£10,000
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	Theatre revenues are down for amateur and professional shows and the profile of ticket sales has very much moved to a last-minute purchase. This requires cash reserves to pay bills prior to ticket receipts and for the trustees to 'hold their nerve' when commissioning shows.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	Ticket sales with additional receipts from theatre tax credits.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	Trust deed
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	CIO
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	We have reviewed the trustee arrangements. We now have four trustees, each with specific areas of responsibility: Finance, external funding, stakeholder liaison and production liaison. A separate 'show' committee focuses exclusively on putting on the show.

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 / 12 / 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
