Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Subsidising/supplementing private mental heathcare for the disadvantaged through funds raised from physical challenges.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The objects of the CIO are threefold; To preserve and protect physical and mental health for the public benefit of people from all socioeconomic backgrounds, in particular but not exclusively those from less financially advantaged backgrounds, by:-

- funding the most effective and successful courses of private mental healthcare available to all people suffering from mental health issues, including but not limited to 6-10 weeks of 1 on 1 therapy sessions with a reputable counsellor, 4-6 sessions with a consultant psychiatrist or residency at a week-long intensive therapy retreat; and
- issuing free documents with scientifically-backed advice, 'mental training-plans / regimes' and free mental health packages (including chamomile tea, calming bath oils etc); and
- funding and providing such other support as the trustees deem appropriate in relieving those with mental health conditions

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.
