RITY COMMISSION ENGLAND AND WALES

April 2022 Period start date To March 2023 Period end date

SORP reference
Para 1.17	The object of the CIO is for the public benefit the relief of poverty amongst those who are homeless or rough sleepers in Wales who are in need, hardship and distress on account of their social and economic circumstances, in particular but not exclusively by the provision of clothing, bedding, food and drinks, toiletries, tents, sleeping bags and other necessities of life, information, advice and signposting on issues related to healthcare, addiction and housing.

Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity deploys outreach teams of volunteers to the streets of major towns and cities in Wales to provide aid, support and in some cases emergency attention to vulnerable homeless people. A few of our volunteers are trained to give emergency attention including First Aid, CPR and the administration of Naloxone, a lifesaving treatment to reverse an opiate overdose. Further and continuous training in Naloxone, Suicide Assist, substance misuse and First Aid will be given to the whole team. Emergency services are contacted when Naloxone is administered, and whenever needed. Our procedures are that on regular times and days, we spread a long line of trolleys throughout the high street, each with different provisions and we move people along the chain, always keeping each other in sight. Safe words are used to notify each other of potential risk. We are recognised by our trolleys and high viz and known through 'word of mouth' and our Facebook community. We collect donations from the public that are stored in our shipping container and sorted into bundles. We collaborate with local hostels, The Trussell Trust, Women's Aid and local Churches, Kaleidoscope drugs and alcohol services, Social Service and Learning disability services.
Para 1.18	The trustees, in making decisions have had due regard to the commission's public benefit guidance when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance is relevant.

SORP reference
Para 1.17	The object of the CIO is for the public benefit the relief of poverty amongst those who are homeless or rough sleepers in Wales who are in need, hardship and distress on account of their social and economic circumstances, in particular but not exclusively by the provision of clothing, bedding, food and drinks, toiletries, tents, sleeping bags and other necessities of life, information, advice and signposting on issues related to healthcare, addiction and housing.

Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity deploys outreach teams of volunteers to the streets of major towns and cities in Wales to provide aid, support and in some cases emergency attention to vulnerable homeless people. A few of our volunteers are trained to give emergency attention including First Aid, CPR and the administration of Naloxone, a lifesaving treatment to reverse an opiate overdose. Further and continuous training in Naloxone, Suicide Assist, substance misuse and First Aid will be given to the whole team. Emergency services are contacted when Naloxone is administered, and whenever needed. Our procedures are that on regular times and days, we spread a long line of trolleys throughout the high street, each with different provisions and we move people along the chain, always keeping each other in sight. Safe words are used to notify each other of potential risk. We are recognised by our trolleys and high viz and known through 'word of mouth' and our Facebook community. We collect donations from the public that are stored in our shipping container and sorted into bundles. We collaborate with local hostels, The Trussell Trust, Women's Aid and local Churches, Kaleidoscope drugs and alcohol services, Social Service and Learning disability services.
Para 1.18	The trustees, in making decisions have had due regard to the commission's public benefit guidance when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance is relevant.

SORP reference
	The charity has deployed outreach teams of volunteers to the streets of major towns and cities in Wales to provide aid, support and in some cases emergency attention to vulnerable homeless people. We have provided emergency attention including First Aid and the administration of Naloxone, a lifesaving treatment to reverse an opiate overdose. We have collected donations from the public that are redistributed to those in need. We collaborate with local hostels, The Trussell Trust, Women's Aid and local Churches, Kaleidoscope drugs and alcohol services, Social Service and Learning disability services to ensure our service users are kept up to date with help and support available. The number of beneficiaries have significantly increased since the commencement of the charity, our services have been able to grow with the demand. We continue to make life more comfortable for rough sleepers and those in need.

MISSION AND WALES

March 2023 Period end date

The object of the CIO is for the public benefit the relief of poverty amongst those who are homeless or rough sleepers in Wales who are in need, hardship and distress on account of their social and economic circumstances, in particular but not exclusively by the provision of clothing, bedding, food and drinks, toiletries, tents, sleeping bags and other necessities of life, information, advice and signposting on issues related to healthcare, addiction and housing.

The charity deploys outreach teams of volunteers to the streets of major towns and cities in Wales to provide aid, support and in some cases emergency attention to vulnerable homeless people. A few of our volunteers are trained to give emergency attention including First Aid, CPR and the administration of Naloxone, a lifesaving treatment to reverse an opiate overdose. Further and continuous training in Naloxone, Suicide Assist, substance misuse and First Aid will be given to the whole team. Emergency services are contacted when Naloxone is administered, and whenever needed. Our procedures are that on regular times and days, we spread a long line of trolleys throughout the high street, each with different provisions and we move people along the chain, always keeping each other in sight. Safe words are used to notify each other of potential risk. We are recognised by our trolleys and high viz and known through 'word of mouth' and our Facebook community. We collect donations from the public that are stored in our shipping container and sorted into bundles. We collaborate with local hostels, The Trussell Trust, Women's Aid and local Churches, Kaleidoscope drugs and alcohol services, Social Service and Learning disability services.

The trustees, in making decisions have had due regard to the commission's public benefit guidance when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance is relevant.

The charity has deployed outreach teams of volunteers to the streets of major towns and cities in Wales to provide aid, support and in some cases emergency attention to vulnerable homeless people. We have provided emergency attention including First Aid and the administration of Naloxone, a lifesaving treatment to reverse an opiate overdose. We have collected donations from the public that are redistributed to those in need. We collaborate with local hostels, The Trussell Trust, Women's Aid and local Churches, Kaleidoscope drugs and alcohol services, Social Service and Learning disability services to ensure our service users are kept up to date with help and support available. The number of beneficiaries have significantly increased since the commencement of the charity, our services have been able to grow with the demand. We continue to make life more comfortable for rough sleepers and those in need.

The charity has received several donations and arranged fund raising events which has enabled us to sustain our services.
