Faith In Government

Annual Report

23 November 2025

Objectives and activities

The objectives of Faith in Government (FIG) are:

1. Enabling and aiding Christians in public and private sectors in low and middle income countries to promote the sound administration and development of the law, according to the tenets of their faith.
2. The promotion of ethical standards of conduct and compliance with the law in the public and private sectors in low and middle income countries.

The main activities undertaken in relation to these objectives during the period 1 April 2024 to 31 March 2025 have been:

- Providing a grant to the Fellowship of Christians in Government (FOCIG) - an NGO in the Philippines that shares our objectives (see <https://www.facebook.com/FOCIG/>)
- Providing a grant to Peace and Hope International (<https://peaceandhopeinternational.org/>) to enable 9 Christian leaders to attend the Integrity and Good Governance Working Group at a meeting of the Initiative of the Americas for Transformation and Reconciliation (see <https://www.iaptr.com/sobrenosotros>), held in Buenos Aires, Argentina in Summer 2024.

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. The public in low and middle income countries benefits from the activities of FIG because:

- Corruption harms the public.
- Christian organizations in some low and middle income countries are helping Christians who hold positions of authority in the public and private sectors try to prevent and fight corruption in the workplace. For example, FOCIG is a government-accredited Philippine NGO that delivers training seminars on moral values and leadership for thousands of staff in the police, armed forces, and other government departments. It also works intensively with small numbers of very senior officers, encouraging them as they try to use their authority to ensure that deals are honest, extra-judicial killings are investigated and elections are fair. FIG supports the work of FOCIG financially, thereby contributing to better control of corruption in the Philippines, faster economic growth and better provision of public services.

Achievements and performance

The Trustees met online on two occasions, and corresponded several times by email, during the period 1 April 2024 to 31 March 2025. They reviewed reports from FOCIG, and approved a grant to FOCIG of £5,555. The Trustees approved a grant of £4,848 to Peace and Hope International (<https://peaceandhopeinternational.org/>) to enable 9 Christian leaders to attend the Public Integrity track of a meeting of the Initiative of the Americas for Transformation and Reconciliation, held in Buenos Aires, Argentina during the period 30 July – 3 August 2024. The Trustees approved travel scholarships totaling £3,154 to enable 2 Christian leaders to attend the Public Integrity track of the Lausanne Congress in Seoul during the period 22-28 September 2024. The Trustees approved a grant of £1,000 to support the administrative costs of the Faith and Public Integrity Network.

Financial review

FIG began the period 1 April 2024 to 31 March 2025 with a balance of £49,465. During this period FIG received no income and expenditure was £14,846, leaving a balance of £34,619 on 31 March 2025. The Trustees do not consider it necessary to hold any other reserves because FIG has no financial liabilities.

Structure, governance and management

FIG is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation, and is governed by a Constitution that is closely modelled on the Charity Commission Foundation Model Constitution.

The Trustees of FIG are chaired by Martin Allaby, who also chairs the Trustees of FPIN. The Trustees of FIG have agreed that Martin's role as chair of FPIN will be noted as an interest and, in circumstances where it could be a conflict of interest (e.g. when FIG is considering grants to FPIN), Martin will provide any relevant information, but will then stand aside from the discussion and decision making process.

The methods used to recruit and appoint new charity trustees are as follows:

- (1) Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.
- (2) In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Reference and administrative details

The name of the charity is Faith in Government (Charity Commission registration number 1167607).

FIG's registered address is 22 Poplar Road, Oxford, OX2 9LB.

The FIG Trustees throughout the period 1 April 2024 to 31 March 2025 were:

Martin Allaby (Chair)
Robert Fricker (Treasurer)
Jonathan Crozier (Secretary)

Funds held as custodian trustee on behalf of others

Annual Report

15 January 2024

Objectives and activities

The objective of the Faith and Public Integrity Network (FPIN) is to advance the Christian religion for the benefit of the public in accordance with its statement of faith, by developing the individual capabilities, competences, skills and understanding of Christian leaders with respect to addressing corruption and the poverty it can cause, in particular through organising webinars and consultations, and through producing or promoting publications on this topic.

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. The public benefits from the activities of FPIN because:

- Corruption harms the public.
- FPIN develops the capabilities, competences, skills and understanding of Christian leaders with respect to promoting public integrity and addressing corruption.

Achievements and performance

From September 2016 until 29 April 2022 FPIN existed as an informal network, led by a Steering Committee. After careful examination of various options for incorporation in different jurisdictions around the world, FPIN became registered with the England & Wales Charity Commission as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation on 29 April 2022.

During the period 29 April 2022 to 31 March 2023 the Trustees met online via Zoom on 5 occasions, and corresponded several times by email. The main activities undertaken during the period 29 April 2022 to 31 March 2023 were:

- Organising 2 private webinars (FPIN members only) and 2 public webinars:

Date	Topic	Speakers
10 Mar, 2023	Private Webinar: Africa Consultation in Nairobi	Consultation participants
9 Dec, 2022	Private Webinar: Summary of the 2022 International Anti-Corruption Conference in Washington, D.C	Kelly O'Donnell and Bob Osburn
25 Oct, 2022	Public webinar: Why is citizen engagement critical to the reduction of corruption: the experience of PTF (Partnership for Transparency Fund)	Daniel Ritchie, PTF
29 Jul, 2022	Public webinar: Deepening Church-led Advocacy for Good Governance	Sarah Onduko, World Vision

- Organising a Consultation on Justice, Accountability and Public Integrity for 70 Christian leaders from 10 countries in Eastern and Southern Africa in Nairobi, 5-10 March 2023. This consultation was hosted in partnership with the Evangelical Alliance of Kenya, and was part-funded by Faith In Government (FIG).

FPIN had 48 members in April 2022 and added 46 new members by 31 March 2023.

Financial review

FPIN began the period 29 April 2022 to 31 March 2023 with £2,252. During this period FPIN's income was £1,705; FPIN's expenditure during this period was £1,701, leaving a balance of £2,256 on 31 March 2023.

The Trustees do not consider it necessary to hold any other reserves because FPIN has no financial liabilities.

Structure, governance and management

FPIN is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation, and is governed by a constitution that is closely modelled on the Charity Commission Foundation Model Constitution.

The Trustees of FPIN are chaired by Martin Allaby, who also chairs the Trustees of FIG.
